ANZAC DAY

Manaakitia Hemara, Matua Kevin Herewini and Joshua Jeffery. ANZAC Day 2018.

We had the privilege of helping to decorate the war memorial hall and support the ANZAC Day service through the encouragement of Matua Kevin Herewini. On Saturday the 21st April a few students and teachers spent some time decorating the foyer and setting up our display in the hall. We linked the Junior School programme with WW1 and our students created various visual texts that we used in our display. On ANZAC Day itself, we were very humbled to have Manaakitia Hemara and Joshua Jeffery both read the order of service ANZAC dedication and the rolls of honour for WW1 and WW2 at the ANZAC Day service. It was also great to see our long time school caretaker, Matua Hone Heta, lead out as the parade coordinator this year. We have a responsibility to acknowledge and remember whanau and service men and women who have fought for our country.

Kei Wareware Tātou. Lest We Forget.

This is the fourth stanza from Laurence Binyon's poem For the Fallen. Referred to as the Ode of Remembrance.

*They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun and in the morning,
We will remember them.*
