Exhibit 1. Q4 RIA M&A Deals Volume Pushes 2017 into 5th Record Year in a Row

Source: Company Reports, SEC IARD, ECHELON Partners Analysis

"It is wonderful to see entrepreneurs in the wealth management industry enjoy another record-breaking year of liquidity events, partnerships, investments, tuck-ins, and promotions to ownership status." Noted Dan Seivert, CEO and Managing Director of ECHELON Partners. "It has indeed been a privilege for our team to work with so many amazing wealth advisors over our 17 year history and in 2017 we served our 80th client with more than $1BN in AUM."

Introduction

As anticipated in the 3Q17 edition of the ECHELON RIA M&A Deal Report, 2017 finished with a flurry of RIA M&A deal activity. The fourth quarter witnessed 41 total consummated transactions involving RIAs; a substantial increase over the 35 deals in Q3, yet still lower than the impressive totals of 47 and 45 in Q1 and Q2, respectively. In aggregate, 2017 was host to 168 RIA M&A transactions, representing a fifth straight record setting year and a 21.7% increase over 2016's 138 deals. The heightened deal activity has coincided with a revitalized interest from consolidators and private equity buyers, as these firms increasingly are seeking and finding established businesses that fit their investment criteria. This activity has been marked by several mega-transactions, including KKR and StonePoint Capital's acquisition of Focus Financials' $100 BN in AUM. In a somewhat recent development, breakaway activity has also accelerated as fears of an impending end to the broker protocol have begun to come to fruition, with large wirehouses such as Morgan Stanley discontinuing their involvement in the program. For advisors pondering the flight to independence, the threat of increased legal liability seems to have provided the impetus for many to take action.

Key Trends and Highlights

- Record Setting 2017 Deal Volume: Despite slightly lower volume in the third and fourth quarters, 2017 realized three of the top four quarters in M&A activity over the past five years. Deal volume reached 168 transactions in 2017, a 21.7% increase over 2016's record year
- Average Deal Size Exceeds $1 BN for the Second Straight year: The four quarters of 2017 achieved average transaction sizes of over $1.0 BN. 2017 saw an average of $1.01 BN AUM per transaction, a 22% CAGR since 2013.
- Consolidators Take Control of RIA Deal Activity: In search of growth platforms and scale, well-capitalized, strategic buyers and consolidators accounted for 44% of RIA purchases in 2017, consummating a record of 74 deals.
- RIA Breakaways Rally in the Face of Increasingly Restrictive Advisor Protocol: 4Q17 saw an increase in 13% relative to 3Q17, with a total of 121 breakaways. Firms leaving the broker protocol pushed advisors to accelerate breakaway activity ahead of 2018.
- $1 BN+ AUM Deal Making Surges: $1 BN+ AUM wealth manager deal activity surpasses strong 2016 numbers and record breaking 2015 figures – with 54 transactions – as buyers seek out these ideal, lower-risk platforms.

Exhibit 2. M&A Activity Surpasses 2016's Record Breaking Year by 22%

Source: Company Reports, SEC IARD, ECHELON Partners Analysis

As Exhibit 2 shows, through 2017, M&A activity among RIAs continues to surge and reached its fifth straight-record setting year. The fourth quarter's deal count of 41 is the fourth highest quarter of deals over the past five years, with three of the highest quarters occurring this year. 2017 began at an accelerated pace with 47 deals in the first quarter and 45 in the second, representing two of the three highest quarterly deal totals since 2013.

The fourth quarter of 2017 cements a year of amplified M&A activity within the industry, exhibited by 22% year over year growth.

Drivers of Increased Deal Activity

- 1. Entrepreneurs Capitalizing on a Robust Market: With the DJIA closing over 26,000 and the recent tax law changes, sellers and buyers alike feel confident and as such are more inclined to enter and consummate transactions.
- 2. Private Equity Firms Seeking Returns for LPs: With over 100 private equity firms already backing rollups, robo-advisors, and traditional wealth managers the industry is now teaming with professional financiers looking for deals and shooting for IRR's north of 20%. With over 25,000 firms there is a ton of room for more deals and deal makers.
- 3. Lenders Facilitating the Appetite for Debt: Annual lending is approaching $500MM as more lenders enter the space based on the huge success of early entrants and their followers. Old fears of risks associated with the lack of tangible assets continue to decrease as lenders back more and more firm types and situations.
- 4. Internal Succession Transactions Finally Bearing Fruit: With internal succession deals moving from 40% to 60 over the past 20 years, more next generation partners are signing long term deals with founders that yield attractive outcomes for both.
- 5. More Advisors for Needy Advisors: With more and more wealth managers realizing the prudence of forgoing the do-it-yourself path, they have increasingly turned to the wealth of resources offered by investment bankers, lawyers, accountants, consulting firms, executive search firms and practice management consultants.

Exhibit 3. Average AUM per M&A Deal ($MM)

Source: Company Reports, SEC IARD, ECHELON Partners Analysis

Exhibit 3 demonstrates an extending trend of average deal sizes exceeding $1 BN AUM per transaction, with each quarter of 2017 achieving an average transaction size of just over $1 BN in AUM. Since 2013, the average size of consummated transactions, as measured by the size of seller's AUM, has increased at a compound annual growth rate of 22%. If trend-level growth rates continue, deal volume would reach 202 in 2018 and deal size would exceed $1.4 BN, translating to more than $280 BN changing hands.

As elaborated on later in this report, billion dollar plus AUM firms often provide buyers with an established business infrastructure and a proven ability to generate consistent cash flows, and, more importantly, profits. With the growing presence of private equity and strategic buyers in the M&A landscape, this trend seems likely to continue, as these firms often seek out targets that fit the seller profile described above.

Exhibit 4. Percentage Breakdown of RIA Acquirers by Firm Type

Source: Company Reports, SEC IARD, ECHELON Partners Analysis

Exhibit 4 demonstrates that with transaction volume at all-time highs, Strategic Buyers and Consolidators are rapidly expanding their footprint by winning significant market share from pure RIA consolidators, up 10% in 2017 relative to 2016.

RIAs: We use this label to describe those firms that have done fewer than five deals in their history, are generally smaller in their strategic reach, and usually have more modest financial resources. This group is responsible for 36% of RIA transactions in 2017 representing approximately 60 transactions. This is a precipitous decrease from the 42% market share that they held in 2016, and their lowest share since 2012. This was surprising given the high number of RIAs who are looking to acquire. This erosion of RIAs making acquisitions is likely due to well-capitalized and sophisticated Strategic Buyers or Consolidators aggressively entering the space and winning deals.

Strategic Buyers or Consolidators: From 2012 to 2014, strategic buyers and/or consolidators accounted for an average of 33% of the industry's reported deal activity. From 2015 and 2017, however, average market share of their buying activity grew significantly and pushed to 42%, with 2017 at a record level for this group. These buyers accounted for 44% of wealth management transactions in 2017 with a deal count of 74, already up 164% from 2013, when they were involved in only 28 transactions. It is worth noting that this group is not all rollup firms. Instead it primarily represents firms that a) already have a platform, b) have considerable financial resources, and c) have done more than a couple of M&A transactions.

Banks: Once the largest buyers of RIAs, banks have been on the bottom of the charts since 2012. In 2017, banks reinvigorated their interest in acquiring RIAs, increasing their anticipated market share by 43% relative to 2016 with 10% of total RIA acquisitions.

Source: Company Reports | *Focus Financial Partners AUM estimated based on valuation multiples and industry average margins

Demonstrated in Exhibit 5, during 2017 there were 15 deals of $2 BN or greater. Leveraging their rollup business model, Focus Financial Partners can be credited with two of the top 15 wealth manager acquisitions. ECHELON expects many more of these large $1 BN+ AUM platform acquisitions as all large acquirers expand to seek scale and increase profit margins. Additionally, these professional buyers seek out businesses with established structures and platforms, which is most often best found in $1 BN+ AUM firms.

Exhibit 6. Breakaway Activity Remains Strong Throughout 2017

Source: Company Reports, SEC IARD, ECHELON Partners Analysis

Exhibit 6 displays the quarterly breakaway volume dating back to 2013. As the logarithmic trend line exhibits, breakaway volume has remained relatively consistent throughout this time horizon, staying within a quarterly range of 70 and 123 breakaways, barring an outlier of 176 in Q2 of 2014. It is interesting to note that two of the quarters of 2017 have brought the respective high and low counts (excluding 2014) for this time range, with Q1 witnessing the high of 123 and Q2 the low of 72. Q3 of 2017 was close to the historic average of this time period at a count of 107 breakaways; the average number being 102 since 2013. Q4 was close to matching the all time high of breakaways achieved in Q1, culminating the year with a quarterly count of 121. The accelerated activity in Q4 is noteworthy as Q4 has consistently seen a lower volume of breakaways, averaging 93 since 2013, which was 10% below the aggregate quarterly average of 102. The pickup in breakaway activity in Q4 could be attributed to the recent steps taken by some wirehouses to remove themselves from the iconic broker protocol, which has been in place since 2004.

Since 2004. An end to the protocol would signal increased legal liability for advisors attempting to leave wirehouses as they would regain the power to seek restitution for any clients the advisor brings with them. As such, those advisors tempted to move to independence are facing increased pressure to make a decision now or face greater potential consequences in the near future. It would appear that some have decided to take the leap, thus driving 4Q17 breakaway activity 30% higher than its historical average for the fourth quarter since 2013. It is likely this trend will continue to develop in 2018 as further developments arise.

Exhibit 7 outlines the top 15 breakaways with over $1 BN AUM in 2017. There were 363 breakaways over $100 MM AUM in 2017, which is more than double the amount witnessed in 2010. The average breakaway AUM transferred was $304 MM in 2017; 5% higher than the average of $290 MM AUM in 2016.

Exhibit 8. $1 BN+ Wealth Management Transactions and Breakaways

Source: Company Reports, SEC IARD, ECHELON Partners Analysis

Given the nine-year expansion of equity markets and enterprise values since the market downturn in 2008, the increased number of advisors over age 60 looking to secure their liquidity events, and the substantial balance sheets of Banks; Consolidators; and Private Equity firms entering the space, ECHELON remains confident that $1 BN+ deal activity will continue to increase.

With more than 500 wealth managers over the $1 BN AUM threshold, the deal volumes of recent years would suggest that close to 10% of these firms have conducted a transaction. $1 BN+ firms have proven to be superior targets for large buyers in recent years and this trend is likely to continue.

There is more buyer interest in these $1 BN+ AUM targets than in smaller firms, for the following reasons:

- 1. They Are Ideal Platforms: Most firms with $1 BN in AUM or more are believed to possess the ideal mix of size and development.
- 2. They Are Small Businesses: Firms over $1 BN in AUM often have more infrastructure, systems, management, protective redundancy, and financial wherewithal.
- 3. Most Have Over $3 MM in EBITDA: Private equity buyers seek this as a cushion to protect financial performance in the event of a market downturn.

About ECHELON Partners:

ECHELON Partners is a Los Angeles-based investment bank and consulting firm focused exclusively on the Wealth and Investment Management industries.

ECHELON was formed to:

- ▶ Address the needs of an underserved subset of the financial services industry—investment product developers, distributors, and technology providers
- ▶ Provide objective, unbiased advice void of conflicts emblematic of larger institutions
- ▶ Help entrepreneurs working at companies of all sizes navigate the numerous complex decisions that come with attaining growth and liquidity

Our Expertise

ECHELON's service offerings fall into three categories:

- ▶ INVESTMENT BANKING
- ▶ MANAGEMENT CONSULTING
- ▶ VALUATIONS

ECHELON's comprehensive range of services help its clients make the tough decisions with respect to: acquisitions, sales/divestitures, investments, mergers, valuation, M&A strategy, new ventures, management buyouts, capital raising, equity sharing, and succession planning.

ECHELON's business is making companies more valuable through its visionary advice and execution excellence. Accordingly, ECHELON measures its success by the enterprise value it creates for its clients. With an unparalleled quantity and quality of investment banking experience in the wealth and investment management industries, no other investment bank can match the caliber of advice or financial results delivered by the professionals of ECHELON Partners.

Our History

ECHELON Partners was founded in 2001 by Dan Seivert, the firm's current CEO and Managing Partner.

Over the past 17 years, the firm's principals have completed more M&A advisory assignments, valuations, and strategic consulting engagements for its three target industries than any other investment bank. In that time, hundreds of executive teams and boards have chosen ECHELON Partners to help them envision, initiate, and execute a diversity of complex business strategies and transactions.

How ECHELON Can Help

Conduct a Valuation: Managers need to know firm value and, more importantly, the key drivers of value. ECHELON has emerged as the leader in delivering high quality valuation reports that cut through irrelevant information and tell managers exactly what drives value and how their firm is performing.

Provide Transaction Assistance (Mergers, Sales, Acquisitions, Capital Raising): Valuation and transactions go hand-in-hand whether buying, selling, raising capital, divesting, investing and/or restructuring. The professionals at ECHELON have extensive experience with these transactions and matching the appropriate deal processes to meet the many objectives of the stakeholders involved.

Continuity & Succession Planning: With its industry-specific experience and focus, ECHELON Partners equips its clients with continuity plans and succession plans designed to mitigate risk and plan for the future. ECHELON develops continuity plans for equity owners who want to put in place a short-term plan for a previously selected successor to take over their firm in the event of a catastrophe, such as death or disability. ECHELON's more involved succession planning process helps equity owners develop a formal plan for their retirement or known departure from the firm, whether they want to pursue an internal sale to colleagues or family, or want to take steps to prepare the firm for an external sale.

Advise on Equity Compensation Structure: As firms grow and evolve, it is common for a wedge to develop between those that create value and those that reap the benefits (through equity ownership). This necessitates the development of equity sharing strategies that are fair, that can foster employee retention, and at the same time minimize tax consequences and complexity. ECHELON is experienced in developing these structures for a host of unique situations.

Equity Recycling & Management: Managers need a method of internal succession whereby a senior partner sells a portion of his or her equity to either one or more junior partners currently with the firm or incoming partners not yet with the firm.

Advise on the Buyout of an Equity Partner: A problem that arises for most firms that remain private occurs when one or more of the founders needs liquidity or needs to be bought out. These situations require thoughtful valuation and structuring that corresponds to the particular situation.

Research Methodology & Data Sources:

The ECHELON Partners RIA Deal Report is an amalgamation of all mergers, majority equity sales/purchases, acquisitions, shareholder spin-offs, capital infusions, consolidations and restructurings (“deals”) of firms that are SEC Registered Investment Advisors (“RIA”). The report is meant to provide contextual analysis and commentary to financial advisors pertaining to the deals occurring within the wealth & investment management industries. The deals tracked and identified in the Deal Report include any transaction involving an RIA with over $100 MM assets under management, which have also been reported by a recent data source (e.g., SEC IARD website, a press release, ECHELON Partners Deal Tracker, industry publications). This methodology aims to maintain consistency of data over time and ensure the utmost accuracy in the information represented herein. Additionally, the report includes financial advisors who terminate relationships with other financial service institutions in order to join RIAs. As with the other transactions reported in the Deal Report, the identified breakaway advisor transitions are transitioning over $100 MM assets under management to a new financial services firm. The reason for this being that transitions of this magnitude are more often than not accompanied with compensation for the transition of assets. The contents of this report may not be comprehensive or up-to-date and ECHELON Partners will not be responsible for updating any information contained within this Deal Report.
