

MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

Dear MSU Community,

As you are well aware, the controversy surrounding Larry Nassar has drawn much negative attention to the Michigan State Community. His unforgivable actions have no place on our campus. Michigan State Greek Life denounces actions including sexual assault, sexual harassment, or anything of the nature. This is not representative of what we, as Michigan State Greeks stand for. We stand with the survivors who have had to endure such atrocities. We want to offer our condolences, prayers, and endless support to the survivors and those who have struggled with issues of sexual abuse in the past. Your voices are being heard and we are here for you. No one is ever alone and we as a Greek Community at MSU will stand by you.

As we move forward past this horrific event, we, Greek Community, continue to promote and support the Its On Us campaign to end sexual abuse and harassment on campus. For anyone who has been effected by this event there are currently many resources around our campus that could help during this difficult time.
