

Safety Instructions

Dashr laser modules contain a Class IIIA intermediate powered laser. This means that they are similar to a laser pointer and can only be hazardous through prolonged direct viewing.

Therefore, any event in which the user could be oriented towards the laser it is suggested that they instead face a reflector so that the laser is at their back.

