Challenges to the “Concert” System:
The 1820s-1830 Revolutions

An Evaluation of the Congress of Vienna

1. The Congress of Vienna was criticized for ignoring the liberal & nationalist aspirations of so many peoples.
2. The leading statesmen at Vienna underestimated the new nationalism and liberalism generated by the French Revolution.
3. Not until the unification of Germany in 1870-71 was the balance of power upset.
4. Not until World War I did Europe have another general war.

The “Concert” of Europe System Established

1. The principle of collective security was established.
   - The Congress of Aix-la-Chapelle [1816]
   - The Congress of Troppau [1820]
   - The Congress of Laibach [1821]

2. Their goal was to define and monitor the status quo.

Congress of Verona

19th Century Conservatism

Conservatism arose in reaction to liberalism & became a popular alternative for those who were frightened by the violence unleashed by the French Revolution.

Early conservatism was allied to the restored monarchical governments of Austria, Prussia, France, and England.

Support for conservatism:
- Came from the traditional ruling class.
- Also supported by the peasants.

Supported by Romantic writers, conservatives believed in order, society and the state, faith, and tradition.
Characteristics of Conservatism

Conservatives viewed history as a continuum.
The basis of society is organic, not contractual.
Stability & longevity, not progress and change, mark a good society.
The only legitimate sources of political authority were God and history.
- They rejected the "social contract" theory.
Conservatives believed that self-interests do not lead to social harmony, but to social conflict.
- Denounced individualism and natural rights.
To conservatives, society was hierarchical.

Concert of Europe: Latin America

The Decembrist Revolt, 1825
Russian upper class had come into contact with western liberal ideas during the Napoleonic Wars.

Late November, 1825 ➔ Czar Alexander I died suddenly:
• He had no direct heir ➔ dynastic crisis
  • Constantine ➔ married a woman, not of royal blood.
  • Nicholas ➔ named by Alexander I as his heir before his death.
  • Russian troops were to take an oath of allegiance to Nicholas, who was less popular than Constantine [Nicholas was seen as more reactionary].
• December 26, 1825 ➔ a Moscow regiment marched into the Senate Square in St. Petersburg and refused to take the oath.

The Decembrist Uprising - 1825
Nicholas ordered the cavalry and artillery to attack the insurgents.

  - "White Terror" - Royalist mobs killed thousands of former revolutionaries.
- 1816 elections - The Ultras were rejected in the Chamber of Deputies election in favor of a moderate royalist majority dependent on middle class support.

- His Goals:
  - Lessen the influence of the middle class.

  - Attack the 1814 Charter
  - Control the press
  - Dismiss the Chamber of Deputies when it turned against him
  - Appointed an ultra-reactionary as his first minister.

France: Conservative Backlash

- 1820 - the Duke of Berri, son of Artois, was murdered.
- Royalists blamed the left.
- Louis XVIII moved the government more to the right.
  - Changes in electoral laws narrowed the eligible voters.
  - Censorship was imposed.
- Liberals were driven out of legal political life and into illegal activities.
- 1823 - triumph of reactionary forces.

- The Fr Revolution's tricolor replaced the Bourbon flag.

The government was now under the control of the wealthy middle class.

- They were seen as another nuisance and source of possible disorder.
- July, 1832 → an uprising in Paris was put down by force and 800 were killed or wounded.
- 1834 → Silk workers strike in Lyon was crushed.

3. There had been very little popular agitation for Belgian nationalism before 1830—seldom had nationalism arisen so suddenly.
4. Wide cultural differences:
   - North → Dutch → Protestant → seafarers and traders.
   - South → French → Catholic → farmers and individual workers.

Belgian Revolution - 1830

A Stirring of Polish Nationalism - 1830

The bloodiest struggle of the 1830 revolutions.
The Poles in and around Warsaw gain a special status by the Congress of Vienna within the Russian Empire.
- Their own constitution.
- Local autonomy granted in 1818.

After Tsar Alexander I dies, the Poles became restless under the tyrannical rule of Tsar Nicholas I.

Polish intellectuals were deeply influenced by Romanticism.

Rumors reached Poland that Nicholas I was planning to use Polish troops to put down the revolutions in France and Belgium.

Several Polish secret societies rebelled.

A Stirring of Polish Nationalism - 1830

Had the Poles been united, this revolt might have been successful.
- But, the revolutionaries were split into moderates and radicals.

The Poles had hoped that Fr & Eng would come to their aid, but they didn’t.

Even so, it took the Russian army a year to suppress this rebellion.

The irony is that by drawing the Russian army to Warsaw for almost a year, the Poles may well have kept Nicholas I from answering Holland’s call for help in suppressing the Belgian Revolt.

Europe in 1830
The Results of the 1820s-1830 Revolutions?

1. The Concert of Europe provided for a recovery of Europe after the long years of Revolution and Napoleonic Wars.
2. The conservatives did NOT reverse ALL of the reforms put in place by the French Revolution.
3. Liberalism would challenge the conservative plan for European peace and law and order.
4. These revolutions were successful only in W. Europe:
   - Their success was in their popular support.
   - Middle class lead, aided by the urban lower classes.
5. The successful revolutions had benefited the middle class → the workers, who had done so much of the rioting and fighting, were left with empty hands.
6. Therefore, these revolutions left much unfinished & a seething, unsatisfied working class.

  1. economic liberalism = laissez-faire
  2. political liberalism

ECONOMIC LIBERALISM

• Classical economics

THOMAS MALTHUS

• ESSAY ON THE PRINCIPLE OF POPULATION
• POP ALWAYS GROWS FASTER THAN FOOD SUPPLY
• GOVT SHOULD NOT HELP POOR AND HUNGRY PEOPLE
• MISERY AND POVERTY ARE THE LAW OF NATURE

New Ways of Thinking

Thomas Malthus

• Population growth will outpace the food supply.
• War, disease, or famine could control population.
• The poor should have less children.
• Food supply will then keep up with population.

Malthus' Basic Theory
DAVID RICARDO

- PRINCIPLES OF POLITICAL ECONOMY
- HIGHER POPULATION = LOWER WAGES

"Iron Law of Wages."
When wages are high, workers have more children.
More children create a large labor surplus that depresses wages.

POLITICAL LIBERALISM

1. CIVIL LIBERTIES
2. LEGAL EQUALITY
3. RELIGIOUS TOLERATION
4. RIGHT TO PEACEFUL OPPOSITION TO THE GOVT
5. REPRESENTATIVE GOVT = PARLIAMENTS/LEGISLATURES
6. LIMITED VOTING RIGHTS — ONLY PEOPLE W/PROPERTY
7. CONSTITUTIONS
8. LIMITED GOVT — FAVORED: ON, JUT MON.
*LIBS. DID NOT BELIEVE IN DEMOCRACY = TOO DANGEROUS!

Origins of 19c Liberalism

- The word was first used when the term was adopted by the Spanish political party, the Liberales, in 1812.
- The roots of liberalism came from two very different traditions of English & French political thought.
  * England
    - John Locke
    - Adam Smith
  * France
    - Jean Jacques Rousseau
    - Francois Guizot

John Locke

- Contract theory of government.
  - Regarded the state as a human construction, established by an original contract.
- Limited, constitutional government.
  - Civil society of free men, equal under the rule of law, bound together by no common purpose but sharing respect for each other’s rights.
  - Doctrine of natural rights.
  - Links private property with individual liberty.
Adam Smith

- His Wealth of Nations adds an economic dimension.
- He merged Locke’s ideas of civil society with economic theory.
  - Free trade economics.
  - Saw the “invisible hand” where a benevolent God administered a universe in which human happiness was maximized.

John Stuart Mill (1806-1873)

- Wrote works on logic and metaphysics, history and literature, economics and political theory.
- Learned Greek at 3; Latin a bit later.
- By 12 he was a competent logician.
- By 16 he was a trained economist.
- A utilitarian:
  - The greatest happiness for the greatest number.
- Wrote On Liberty in 1859.

On Liberty (1859)

- Government might be antagonistic to the causes of individual freedom.
- The sole purpose of government is “self-protection.”
- Government may only coerce others in self-defense.
- We should maximize human development for a more equal society:
  - Mill favored a more open administration.
  - Organized interest groups.
  - Workers cooperatives.
  - Workers would own the factories and elect the managers.
  - Tax wealth.
  - Redistribution system of wealth:
    - Confiscation of excess profits
    - Abolish the wage system.
  - Emancipation of women.
  - Supporter of women’s rights and educ for women

Classical Liberalism in England

- Important legislation:
  - Catholic Emancipation Act of 1829.
  - Reform Act of 1832.
  - Factory Act of 1833.
  - Repeal of the Corn Laws in 1846.

Classical Liberalism in France

- Dilemmas faced by French liberals:
  - How to ‘end’ the French Revolution?
  - How to reconcile order and liberty in a nation torn apart by civil war?
- These problems called for a rethinking of Liberalism.

Jean Jacques Rousseau

- His Social Contract and theory of the “general will” demonstrates an alternative origin of Liberalism.
  - Men must resolve problems through our capacity to choose how we ought to live.
- Man was born free, and he is everywhere in chains.
- Humans are essentially free, but the ‘progress’ of civilization has substituted subservience to others for that freedom.
Rousseau & Totalitarianism

- The "General Will" → a strong and direct form of democracy.
  - Only possible in a relatively small state?
  - Is Rousseau promoting collective tyranny?
- Rousseau rejected representative democracy.

Francois Guizot

- He ‘deconstructed’ the French Revolution, and distinguished between "Moderate Liberalism" and extremist Jacobinism.

"Moderate" Liberalism

1. Favored the idea of the sovereignty of the people, but...
   - Government should rest on the organized consent of at least the most important sections of the community.
   - An extension of the franchise to include all men of property.
   - Exclude the working class!
2. A good constitutional monarchy was the best form of government.
3. Valued liberty more than equality.
   - Confidence in man’s powers of self-government and self-control.
   - Freedom of the press.
   - Free right of assembly.
4. Written constitutions.
5. Economic policies:
   - Laissez-faire economy.
   - Free trade.
   - Lower tariffs.
   - Against the right of the working class to organize into unions.
6. The general progress of humanity would emerge from the growth of wealth and from science and inventions.
7. Established churches & the landed aristocracy were obstacles to the advancement of civilization.
8. Orderly change by legislative process.
9. A dislike of wars, conquests, a standing army, and military expenditures.
10. Hated the idea of revolution!

Guizot Accepts the Charter from Louis Philippe

Challenges to Liberalism

- From above → the conservative upper class.
- From below → socialism/Marxism.
- From organized religions.
- From militarism and imperialism.
- From economic upheavals:
  - Irish Potato Famine [1845-1852].
  - Great Depressions [1873-1896].
The Utilitarians:
Jeremy Bentham & John Stuart Mill
- The goal of society is the greatest good for the greatest number.
- There is a role to play for government intervention to provide some social safety net.

Jeremy Bentham

NATIONALISM
- People are part of community – they share
  1. common institutions
  2. traditions

The Revolutions Of 1848
“The Springtime of Peoples”

The turning point at which history failed to turn.

--- George Macaulay Trevelyan [1937]

Historicism

The "Hegelian Dialectic"
- History advances through conflict.
- One phase of history creates its opposite (ex: absolutism to democracy).

George Wilhelm Friedrich Hegel [1774-1831]

Not Really: Centers of Revolution in 1848

No Coherent Organized Revolutions

Many different reasons for revolutionary activities.
- Reactions to long- and short-term causes.
- Competing ideologies in different countries.
- Different revolutionary leaders, aims, and goals in different countries.
- Some countries had no revolutions:
  - England.
  - Russia.

FRANCE: The Giant Sea Snake?

  • The costs of government social programs.
    • Did they violate laissez-faire?
  • The question of whether you could have liberty for all men and still have a system based on private property.
- Growing social tensions between the working class & the bourgeois middle class regarding:
  • The nature of work.
  • The right to unionize.
  • Pay levels.
April Elections

- Resulted in a conservative majority in the National Assembly.
  - They began debating the fate of social programs [like the National Workshops].
- The conservative majority wanted the removal of radicals like Blanc from the government.
  - In early June, the National Workshops were shut down.
