The Lake

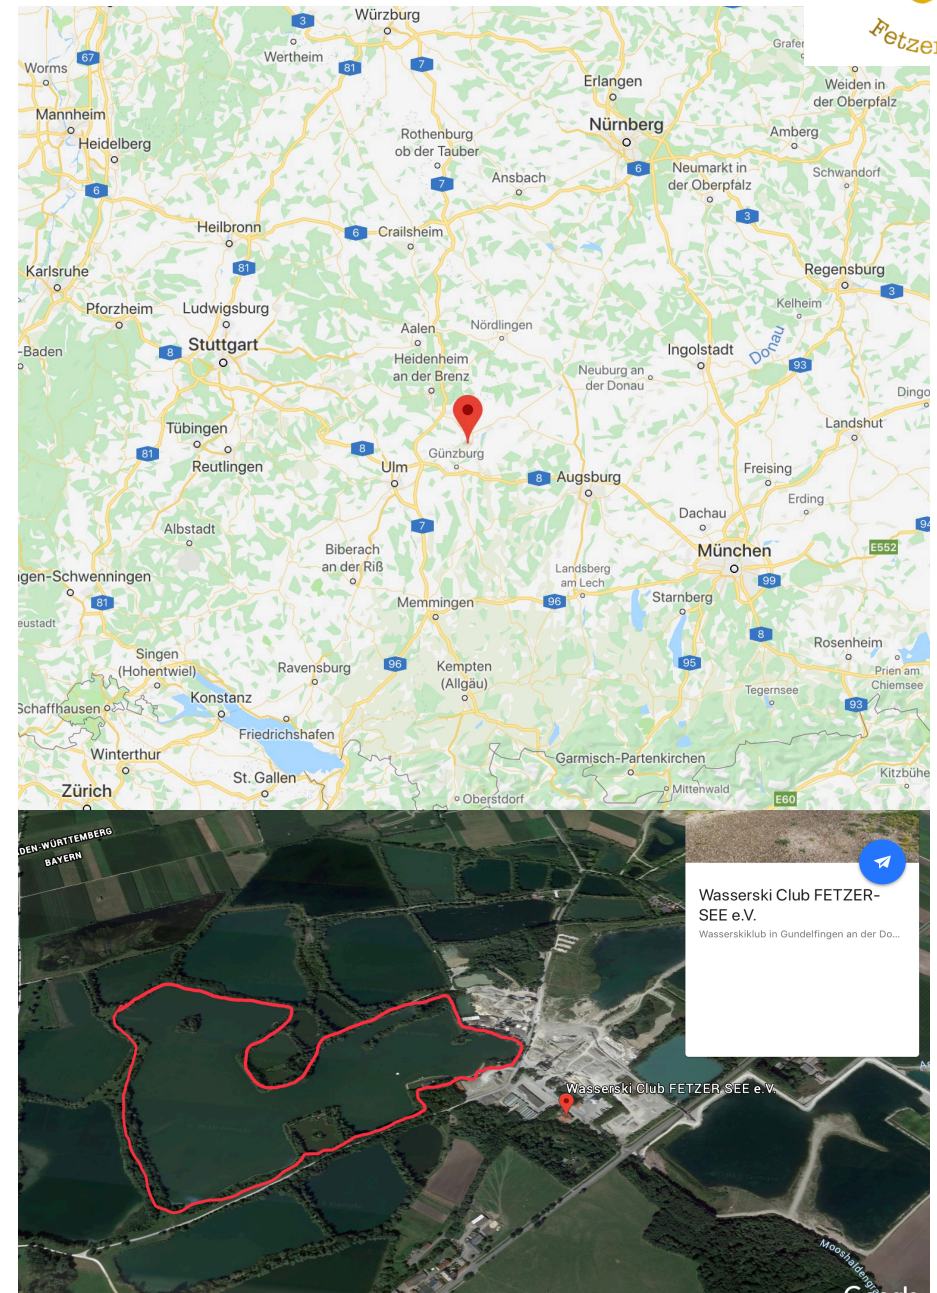

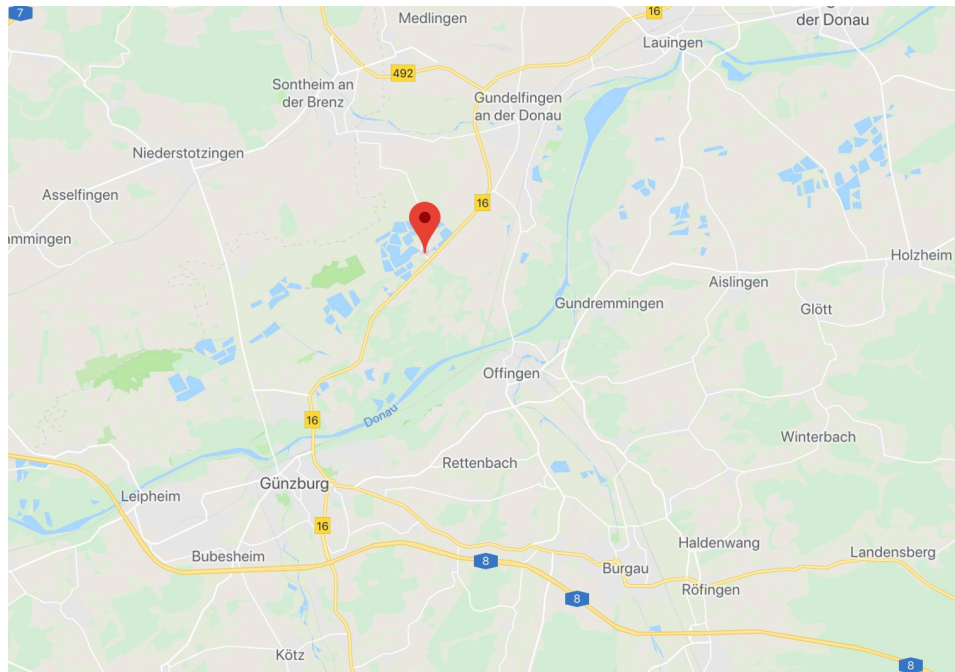

The competition will be held on the private Lake Fetzer-See. As the final product of gaining gravel in the Danube River area the beautiful lake was shaped by the company named Fetzer & Co. KG, gravel & concrete works.

The Fetzer-See consists of approximately 110 acre of water area. It is situated in Bavaria (Schwaben) between the south german cities of Günzburg und Dillingen and meets all the needs for water skiing.

The Club

The Waterski Club Fetzter-See e.V. (WSCFS e.V.) was founded by Thomas and Alexander Fetzter in 2005. The Idea was to enable water sports behind a boat for everyone – not only accessible for semi professional or professional skiers. The location is an official training center and competition site of the German Waterski and Wakeboard federation (DWWV e.V.) for national and international competition sport.

The Accommodation

The official Hotel will be:

“SleepySleepy” Hotel Dillingen an der Donau

Kapuziner Strasse 35

89407 Dillingen an der Donau

Phone Number: +4990717749690

When you book your room there, please say DWWV with your booking, because we have reserved rooms, that will be available for you for a special price.

Camping at the site is available but there is limited space so if you want to sleep at the site please email Franz Kirsch: franz-ski@gmx.de.

The Competition

The National Championships will be held as a two rounds competition (best of two rounds) in following divisions: open women, open men, junior girls, junior boys, senior women and senior men.

The open international competition will also be a two rounds competition and extra trophies but only open and juniors.

Schedule:

The competition will start on Friday.

The boom competition will be a two rounds trick competition on the boom, with or without handle, boys and girls together. The age limit to enter is 13.

In accordance with the IWWF Anti-Doping Rules, drug controls can be conducted during this competition. By entering this competition all athletes agree to be subject to doping control. Information about the IWWF Anti-Doping program can be found at: <http://iwwf.sport/athletes/anti-doping/> where you will also find a direct link to the list of all prohibited substances.

The Entry Fee

The entry fee will be 40,-€ per discipline or 120,-€ for all three events. For juniors the entry fee will be 30,-€ per discipline and 90,-€ for all three events. The entry form needs to be sent to the organizer and to the national barefoot council by 01.06.2019 and the fee must be transferred to the organizers bank account by the date. The organizer will charge an extra fee of 40,-€ for late entries.

Each registered skier needs to be in possession of a skiing license (from their federation) and a valid insurance.

The Training

For the training at the site we are happy to announce that World Champion Georgia Groen will be there as a coach from Monday 8th of July till Thursday 11th of July. There'll be limited space for training so please let us know if you are there to train as soon as possible. One hour of training including Georgia as driver and coach will cost 180€ or 60€ per set.

The Sponsors

We're happy to announce that Freizeitcenter Adolph, Wörpelbau and Mercury will support our competition.

The T-Shirts

Every Skier will get a free T-shirt with their entry to the competition, so please add your T-shirt size to the entry form (there will be women and men style shirts). For everyone else there will be an online shop (like they had at the 2018 worlds) to pre-order the T-Shirts and other clothes or accessories that will be handed out at the competition site. We will post the shop link soon on the event's Facebook page:
