CL IN THE NEWS

First we had a fantastic article about Creative Lexington in both the Chevy Chaser and Southsider magazines with our close partner, Smiley Pete Publishing, who collaborates with CL on "Creative Types" series each month. Most recently, a nice article was published by the Herald-Leader highlighting our distribution of Snapshot Bios to a wide demographic through Red Oak Digital Network at the MinitMart Shell gas stations. We hope to grow our distribution to other networks.

FILM PROJECT

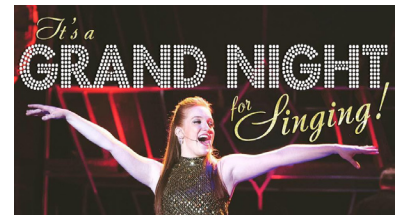

Judging for the CL Film Project's Screenplay Competition is under way. The deadline for submissions was June 15th. Out of over 400 submissions, we ended up having 74 of those that met our criteria of 1) can be filmed in Central Kentucky, 2) PG-13 or below and 3) can be filmed within our budget. 40 of those screenplays were from writers in Kentucky. I am giddy about that beyond words. Our 5 Finalists for the $5,000 Grand Prize will be announced on June 30th. If you want more information on the CL Film Project, click on the icon.

THE CL COLLECTIVE

The Collective went to UK Opera Theatre's "It's A Grand Night for Singing" on June 19th and what a great show it was. This show changes every year and you should always put it on your calendar to see annually. My daughter has been in it for the past two years and I have been so impressed on how professional they are. We had 32 folks in the Collective come to the show. Our first Collective outing to Kentucky Ballet Theatre's "The Little Mermaid" had 20. So we are growing. More to come in the next newsletter on when and where the next outing will be.
