

THE MOUNTAINS & WATERFALLS OF WALES - WEEKEND HIKING ADVENTURE

01-03 MARCH 2019

Join us for the weekend of hiking in the beautiful waterfall area in Wales.

The Brecon Beacons National Park is home to some of the most beautiful scenery in South Wales, full of grassy moorland, tranquil reservoirs, stunning waterfalls and high mountain plateaus.

It covers an incredible 520 square miles of South and Mid Wales, with two thirds of this area being comprised of old red sandstone rocks.

The National Park was established in 1957 – and was one of the first ten areas’ in Britain to be given such status.

DETAILED ITINERARY:

Day 1: March 1st, Friday

Arrival to Cardiff. Check-in the hotel. We recommend booking your train tickets from London to Cardiff asap. The hotel is 5 minutes walk from the station.

Day 2: March 2nd, Saturday

THE WATERFALLS HIKE (10-11 miles)

We begin with what can only be described as a sublime hike, a circuit of up to ten waterfalls in the most renowned waterfall area of the UK. We'll also have the opportunity to walk behind one!

Highlights:

- “Snow falls” – walk behind a waterfall and come out the other side – must be tried once in a lifetime!
- Caves
- Waterfall Visitor Centre

Day 3: March 2nd, Saturday

BLAEN Y GLYN “hanging valley” Ridgeline walk (9 miles)

A walk around this glacial valley, which has many special geological characteristics and lots to discover. There is a challenging ascent at the beginning, but once you are up you stay up - true skyline walking. One of the most varied and interesting walks in the Beacons, which packs in loads for its' relatively short distance

Highlights:

- Witness a typical U-shaped glacial valley
- Canadian bomber plane crash site and memorial
- Section of lovely waterfalls, including possible swim spot for the very brave
- Visit the largest burial cairn in the Beacons
