Confidentiality Statement

Any personal data or information collected and used by Terri Marie Barbery-Redd of Cornwall HypnoBirthing and Hypnotherapy is done so in full compliance with current GDPR legislation as of May 2018. This is relevant for any data or information from which an individual can be identified.

1. Information will be used lawfully, fairly and with transparency and may comprise names, contact details, relevant medical/mental health information, past and present pregnancy and birth information and personal feedback/stories.

2. Information will only be used for the correct purpose. This will include communication, appropriate preparation for services offered, health and safety, and completion of feedback and mentorship documentation as agreed in advance.

3. Information taken will be adequate and relevant to the purposes identified above and limited only to these purposes. Specific permission will be sought in writing for any uses outside of those identified above.

4. Efforts will be made to ensure information is kept accurate and up to date.

5. Information will not be kept for longer than is necessary according to ongoing need or statutory requirements for insurance purposes.

6. Information will be kept securely to prevent being lost, destroyed or damaged. Information in an electronic format, including email and text exchanges, will be kept on a password protected device. Any information kept in cloud storage will be within a GDPR compliant system. Information will never be passed on, or shown to, a third party unless expressed consent is given.
