You'll immediately see why it's called the "jewel of Pasadena" when you step into a world with everything from romantic English botanical gardens to breathtaking Chinese gardens. The grounds are truly a nature lover's paradise. Take some time to go inside to see the fascinating art gallery featuring hundreds of paintings and sculptures that span 500 years. The library is also incredible — it houses millions of books and manuscripts, including some of the finest and rarest in the world.

If you really want to get a glimpse of Hollywood, you must take this tour! This leisurely paced walking tour actually takes you inside many of the landmarks – something you just can't do on a bus. Each person will receive a unique "live-audio" system, allowing you to hear the local tour guide even over the most extreme city noise. At the end of the tour, you'll join your Tour Manager on the motorcoach for a local tour viewing Sunset Boulevard and the Farmers Market.

Day 3: Saturday, December 30, 2017

Inside, the museum is even more remarkable. As you meander through the halls, see a collection of Western art dating from the 15th century to today. There is so much to discover with thousands of rare books, prints and drawings, hundreds of rare photographs and more!
