

An Evening with Sir Trevor McDonald

An event in aid of the Art Fund (The National Art Collections Fund)

Monday, July 16th. 6 pm

MEET SIR TREVOR MCDONALD

At

Douai Pavilion and Park, Upper Woolhampton, RG7 5TG.

A much loved newsreader for many years, Sir Trevor McDonald is also a writer and broadcaster of great distinction.

His recent highly acclaimed documentaries include Death Row, and James Bulger, 'A mother's Story'.

He has written biographies of cricketers, Viv Richards and Clive Lloyd, his autobiography Fortunate Circumstances and The Queen and the Commonwealth with Peter Tiffin.

The evening will start with drinks and canapés outside on the terrace, followed by a talk by Sir Trevor.

Sir Trevor does not have spare copies of his books but is happy to sign any that guests may bring with them. A bar will be open after the event and Sir Trevor will be happy to talk with guests.

Tickets - £35 to include wine and canapés, before the talk. (Drinks from the bar after the talk are not included in the ticket price)

Ticket purchases through Diana Humble

Beenham Lodge Cottage, Beenham, RG7 5QG

Cheques made payable to: Art Fund Berks and please enclose a SAE.
(Questions related to this event please email diana.humble@blc2.co)