FIFTH SUNDAY IN LENT

TE RĀTAPU TUARIMA O RĒNETI

PASSION SUNDAY - TE RĀTAPU MAMAETANGA

with Baptism

FROM THE DEAN

As the Passion of Christ draws near, today's readings challenge us to be more passionate in our worship, in our faith and in our devotion to Christ.

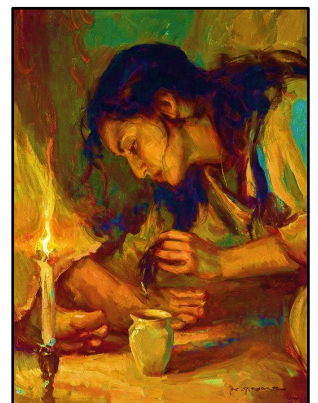

In Isaiah, the emphasis is on worship. The Israelites are called once again to be the people God made them to be, 'so that they might declare the praises of God'.

In Philippians, the emphasis is on faith. Paul celebrates the righteousness that comes through faith in Christ and challenges us to keep on growing as that faith matures.

In John, Mary's passionate act of anointing Jesus' feet is both a sign of his burial and an inspiration for him - and for us - to wash the feet of others.

The passages crystallise a question with which the Christian worshipper must wrestle.

Is Christianity at heart about helping others, meeting the needs of the poor, being a good neighbour, and doing one's part to make the world a better place? Or is it at heart about paying devotion to Jesus, showing extravagant love and costly sacrifice to him, despite this seeming over-the-top to the world?

Blessings, The Very Reverend Anne Mills, Dean

FOR OUR PRAYERS

PRAYERS FOR THE CHURCH:

We pray for Bishop Ross as he leads the Diocese, and for Bishop Kito in Te Tai Tokerau.

We continue to hold Bishop Jim and his family in our prayers as he undergoes treatment due to ill health. We pray for Bishop Fereimi Cama, the new Bishop of Polynesia and Primate of ANZP and the Bishop Elect of Nelson, Steve Maina.

In our own community we give thanks for friendships and the opportunity to love one another as Christ's example teaches us.

PRAYERS FOR NZ:

We pray for our Jewish friends as they prepare for Pesach.

PRAYERS FOR THE WORLD

The Safe Ground global campaign, which aims to turn minefields into playing fields, and to raise resources for victims and survivors of armed conflict.

We pray for those who have died and remember those whose anniversaries occur at this time especially Alan Parkinson. Eternal rest grant to them, O Lord, and let light perpetual shine upon them. In particular, we remember John Wilson whose ashes were interred here last week.

We celebrate with the families of Indiana Pearl and Isabel Emma who were baptised here this weekend.

THE CATHEDRAL PRAYER CHAIN is a group of parishioners committed to respond promptly to any requests for confidential prayer.
