

Kathedral Kids Newsletter | Term 4 2017

Dear Kathedral Kids Parents,

Welcome to the start of Term 4 for KK. Hope this email finds you all well and that everyone had a wonderful time during the school holidays. Our learning this Sunday was based on Matthew 22:1-14.

We gathered as usual and shared our holiday fun and happenings to begin our morning. We carried on to talk about banquets, feasts, celebrations and parties. We then watched a video of a Roman banquet to have an idea of what these were like. Keeping in mind how lavishing it was and how wonderfully dressed everyone were, we heard our reading from Matthew and tried to make sense of it all.

There were a lot of questions which was brilliant because it shows how deeply our children are willing to learn and understand the bible. The challenge is trying to explain the metaphors within the parables and not knowing what question may be asked next. The reward though, is seeing the children smile or nod their head when they've understood something.

To save paper and ink and for everyone to all enjoy a game or 2 together, we transferred our activities from paper, onto the floor and the white board. We had a maze marked out on the floor and to have a turn, one had to answer a question relating to our lesson, Christmas or Easter. There was also a word search up on the white board which we just managed to finish just before having to return upstairs for communion.

Our session ended with the Lord's Prayer. There is always a moment of warmth and joy, witnessing the children recite the Lord's Prayer!
