22 OCTOBER 2017

TWENTY NINTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

TE RĀTAPU RUA TEKAU MĀ IWA O HE WĀ NOA IHO

SENTENCE: 'I call upon you, for you will answer me, O God; incline your ear to me, hear my words. Guard me as the apple of the eye; hide me in the shadow of your wings.' John 10.27,28

COLLECT: Almighty God, you reign over all things and have created each one of us in your own image. Assist your people to give to earthly rulers and powers what belongs to them and to give our allegiance and ourselves to you alone, the one whose image is imprinted on every human soul. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

FROM THE DEAN

There is only 1 week before Consecration! You are ALL welcome to the service at 3pm on the 28th October, and to the 10am Festal Choral Eucharist the day afterwards where our celebrations will continue with our guest preacher, The Right Reverend Michael Ipgrave, Bishop of Lichfield.

I would also like to extend a heart-felt thank you to ALL those who have helped to make the Cathedral and St Mary's sparkle inside and out. We were overwhelmed by the response and could not have done it without you!

A reminder too, that there will be a garden working bee on Friday 26 October at 9.30am (meet in the Visitor's Centre), when we will make a special effort to get the precinct looking spic and span for the Consecration the next day. If you have never joined us before, please do come along.

As we prepare for this great occasion, please also continue to pray the following with us:

Loving God, through the ages you have moved people to build houses of prayer and praise and to set apart places for the ministry of your Holy Word and Sacraments. With gratitude for all those who have brought Bishop Selwyn's vision to reality, receive the work of our hands in this place as we prepare to set it apart for your worship, the building up of the living and the remembrance of the departed. Guide and direct us in our vision for the future that we might lead your people in the ways of justice and peace. Amen.

Anne
