FROM THE DEAN

Robert Ellsberg writes: The Saints are those who, in some partial way, embody - literally incarnate - the challenge of faith in their time and place. In doing so, they open a path that others may follow.

The Feast of All Saints for me is a time to remember with gratitude all those people whose goodness has inspired me in my beliefs and given me courage to act on what I believe. It is a day to acknowledge that these holy men and women have helped me find my own potential for goodness.

I think of "saints" as not only those women and men who have been canonized by the church, but all people whose lives reflect the goodness of God. Saints are not perfect people! They have their faults, idiosyncrasies, and weaknesses. They have their own struggles and difficulties. Yet the saints are people of integrity. They have a central focus at the core of their lives: the love of God. They consistently choose to act out of that central reality, no matter how ordinary or extraordinary their lives may be.

So, may we today, as we gather to worship and remember the saints, be re-inspired by their virtuous lives and to cherish the union we have with them.

Anne

CATHEDRAL NEWS

Last Saturday and Sunday we were privileged to host a weekend of wonderful and uplifting choral music at our Choral Spectacular Weekend. On Saturday night Rowan and the Cathedral choir were joined by the choir of the Wellington Cathedral of St Paul, and the Voices of St Matthew-in-the-City where an appreciative audience donated a generous sum to Habitat for Humanity NZ. The great music didn't stop there, with more amazing singing at our Consecration Anniversary and again at Evensong. Thank you to Rowan, Philip, Paul, Stephen Matt Howes, and all who made this 'feast' possible and also to Michael Stewart and the St Paul's choir who made the journey from Wellington to join us.
