Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Te Rātapu Tekau mā rua o He wā noa iho

Living God's Love - Welcoming - Worshipping

FROM THE DEAN:

To Our Children's Children's Children is a 1969 album by The Moody Blues. The title alone should be enough to make us pause and take stock of how we live, and how we nurture generations to come. Many of us during the Covid lockdown and beyond had time to stop and think. There has been little choice! For those who have not had to worry about job or income loss or staff wellbeing the spare time and resulting headspace has allowed a re-evaluation of our frantic, consumeristic, individualistic, self-sufficient lives. Maybe you like me have completed a mental debrief and if you have not you might find it helpful to do so. It might look like this:

What kind of future would I like to return to?

What was working before?

Who was 'before' working for?

Was before working?

Access, poverty, isolation, climate crisis, housing, food poverty are all areas that in my mind could do with innovation and courageous thinking.

Re-imagining what our society could be is an opportunity we cannot miss as a faith community. Beyond economic recovery, how can we think creatively about reviewing and developing our future?

These last few months has not been an easy time, and the turmoil and confusion will continue. But maybe, just maybe, lasting good can come from this Great Pause - for us and the generations to come.

I would be interested to hear from you via an email if you would like to be part of a collective debrief on this Great Pause and explore ways we as a Cathedral community might contribute to some of the issues we face and thus nurture the generations to come.

NEWS

IT'S EASY TO FORGET WHERE YOU HAVE BEEN.

Contact tracing remains important for all of us so, even though we don't need to register for services or when entering the cathedral, please make sure you keep a diary in any way that suits you.

You just may need to access this information in the future to mitigate risk and keep yourself and others safe.

CAN YOU HELP?

Do you have great minute-taking skills? We need a volunteer to take minutes for our Resources Board meetings. Commitment: 2-3hrs per month. Please contact Merle on 09 303 9500 or office@holy-trinity.org.nz

MAINLY MUSIC Facilitator: Do you enjoy music and engaging with small children? If so, why not volunteer for this important ministry at the Cathedral on Mondays from 9.30am during school term.

If you are interested, please contact Dean Anne on htcdean@holy-trinity.org.nz

We pray for:

Bishop Ross as he leads the Diocese, and for Bishop Kito in Te Tai Tokerau. Bishop Jim White and his family. We also pray for our Archbishops Don, Philip and Cama.

The spiritual, emotional, and physical well-being of our clergy and staff.

The Cathedral Music Department as they return to regular practices and services.

The spirit of perseverance and love within our cathedral community as together we face the challenges that the COVID-19 pandemic presents.

All who guide us in the ways of peace and reconciliation and maintain the well-being of our society.

The terminally ill and those who care for them.

The police, emergency services, their families and the residents of Massey affected by the critical incident and fatal shooting that occurred in the area on Friday.

The hearts and minds of those in authority around the world.

Lives torn apart by injustice and fear in the face of racism, unrest and lawlessness.

We remember all who have died, especially Bruce Gordon Bleakley, David Johnathan Heaney, and Daphne Georgina Mason. Bless all who mourn for them and may they heal their brokenness with Christ's love.

WEDDINGS:

We celebrate with and pray for Merylie Jane Oliver and Ian Davidson who were married in St Stephen's Chapel this weekend.
