8 OCTOBER 2017

TWENTY SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME TE RĀTAPU RUA TEKAU MĀ WHITU O HE WĀ NOA IHO

SENTENCE: 'Because there is one bread, we who are many are one body, for we all partake of the one bread.'

1 Corinthians 10:17

Collect

Loving God, yours is the vineyard and the harvest. Help us to recognise the one you send and to follow him. Make us willing workers in your vineyard, so that we may offer you an abundant harvest. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

FROM THE DEAN

3 weeks and many things to be organised and done before the 28th October so that the Cathedral and its precinct looks fabulous!!!

You may have noticed gardens being weeded, trimmed and planted, the buildings being washed down, new lighting being installed in the crossing and Cathedral forecourt pitches to name a few.

You will also notice in the pew sheet a plea for help with a working bee on Wednesday 18th October at 10am.

You are all invited to the Consecration Cocktail Party. Details are in this pew sheet. Book now and come and celebrate what we have achieved to complete our Cathedral!!

As we prepare for this great occasion I would invite you to continue to pray the following prayer each day.

Loving God, through the ages you have moved people to build houses of prayer and praise and to set apart places for the ministry of your Holy Word and Sacraments. With gratitude for all those who have brought Bishop Selwyn's vision to reality, receive the work of our hands in this place as we prepare to set it apart for your worship, the building up of the living and the remembrance of the departed. Guide and direct us in our vision for the future that we might lead your people in the ways of justice and peace. Amen.

You are ALL welcome to the consecration service at 3pm on Saturday 28th October and to the Sunday services where our celebrations will continue with our guest preacher The Right Reverend Michael Ipgrave, Bishop of Lichfield. Anne Mills

We pray for the victims and the families of the mass shooting in Las Vegas.

We pray for those who have died especially Kate McHerron and Samuel Morison and remember those whose anniversaries occur at this time, especially Michael Firth. Eternal rest grant to them, O Lord, and may light perpetual shine upon them.
