Q. Are there places I can't carry my handgun concealed?

A. Yes. There are several locations in which you cannot carry a firearm, even with a concealed handgun license, including:

- Any federal facility -- federal courthouses, social security offices, secured areas of airports, airplanes.
- Posted private property where the owner prohibits firearms possession, and others.
- Many private businesses have conditions regarding the possession of firearms on their premises. If you violate these conditions you could, under certain circumstances, be subject to arrest under Oregon trespass laws, in which case, if convicted, your concealed handgun licensee would be seized and/or revoked.
- National forests marked or posted with signs prohibiting all firearms.
- Indian reservations or property -- you may not carry a firearm concealed without the written permission of the tribal judge; this may also apply to certain casinos on tribal lands.
- Courts -- in a courtroom, jury room, judge's chambers, or adjacent areas that the presiding judge determines should be free of firearms to ensure the safety of litigants, court personnel witnesses, and others.

PLEASE NOTE: If you plan to carry your handgun, it is important to research the requirements at these locations before you go. Please see the Oregon Revised Statutes for any updated Oregon State restrictions. If in doubt, contact the facility you plan to visit directly to obtain their policy.

For information regarding the Portland airports please contact the Port of Portland legal department.

You need to check with the Port Authority of each airport as other airports in Oregon are under other jurisdictions.

Q. What should I do if I just moved into Wheeler County and I have a concealed handgun license from another County?

Once the application is completed, if you pass the background check, a new license will be mailed to you.

Q. Do I have to take another handgun safety class to renew my license?

There are no penalties for letting your license expire. However, without a valid concealed handgun license, you have no authority to carry a handgun concealed.

A. It generally takes about 20 minutes to process new applications. ORS 166.292 allows the Sheriff 45 days to review your new application, conduct a background check and issue you your new concealed handgun license.

At times we could take up to 45 days, but it is our goal to have your new concealed handgun license in the mail to you within 15 business days. It is safe to assume if there are issues that arise as a result of your background check; it will take 45 days for your new license to be issued or denied.

Q. How will I know if my application was denied or my concealed handgun license was revoked?

A. If your concealed handgun license is denied or revoked, you will be sent a certified letter advising you of that fact and the reason for the denial/revocation.

Q. What would cause my concealed handgun license to be revoked?

A. Generally, anything that would cause you to be denied a license when you initially applied would cause your concealed handgun license to be revoked. Examples would include: new arrests where you are on a form of pre-trial release, any misdemeanor or felony conviction, being named as the respondent of a restraining order that's in effect.

Please call 541-763-4101 if you have a concern in this area.

Q. If my concealed handgun license application is denied or my concealed handgun license is revoked, can I appeal?
