

10 FACTS ABOUT FILE SHARERS IN THE UNITED STATES

File sharers per day #1

In the first six months of the year, a daily average of 1,347,624 file sharers in the U.S. downloaded and shared at least one file over P2P networks

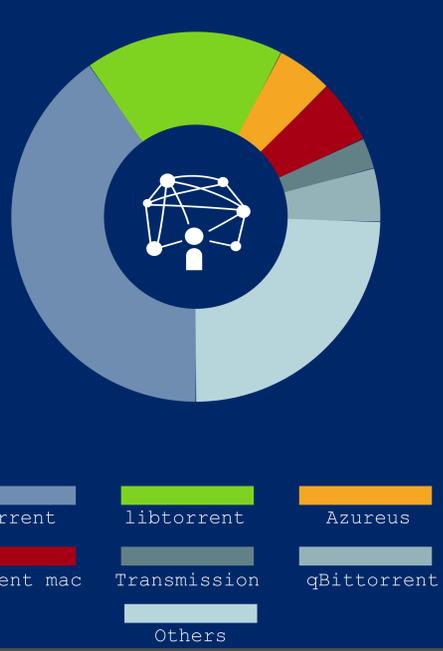

#2 International share

At 4.78%, The U.S. has the fifth most file sharers in the world, right before India (5.31%).

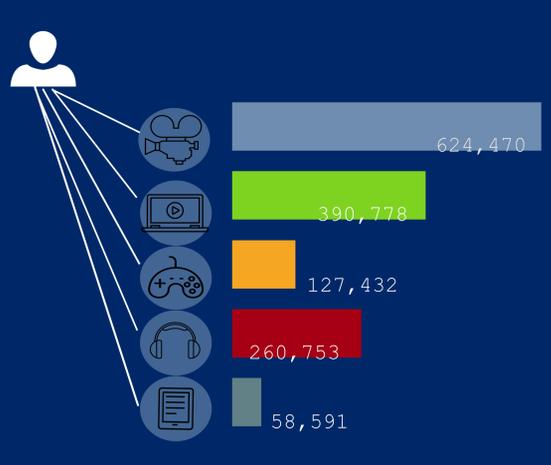

Most-used clients #3

More than 37% of U.S. file sharers prefer uTorrent over other file sharing clients.

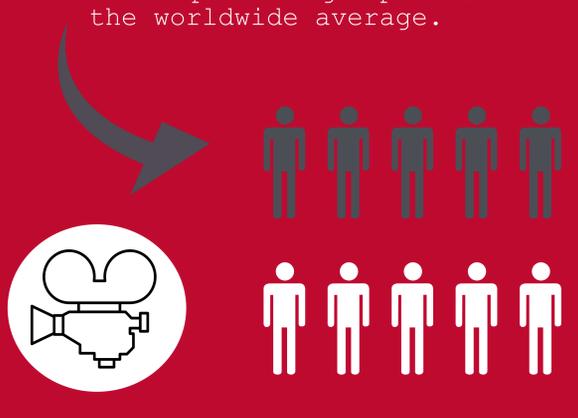

#4 Most popular content type

But what exactly is in these files? Our chart depicts the daily average number of file sharers broken down by content type.

Most popular movies #5

Almost 5 in 10 P2P users in the United States shared movie titles through P2P networks. Nevertheless, the U.S. average is 4 percentage points below the worldwide average.

#6 Most popular games

Compared with the other top file sharing countries, file sharers in the U.S. don't seem to be the most active game players:

9.5% of P2P users share games.

Most popular artists #7

Sharing music files seems to be the most important to file sharers in the United States than file sharers in other countries:

20%

of P2P users share music files

Top 5 games shared by U.S. file sharers:

- 1# "The Sims 4"
- 2# "Waves"
- 3# "Minecraft"
- 4# "Grand Theft Auto V"
- 5# "The Witcher 3: Wild Hunt"

The top 5 most downloaded and shared music artists:

- 1# Drake
- 2# Kendrick Lamar
- 3# Future
- 4# The Weeknd
- 5# Migos

#8 Most popular TV series

The most popular TV series in the first half of 2017 was AMC's

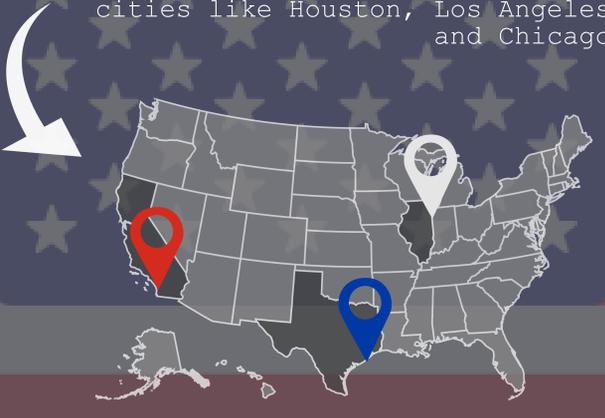

"The Walking Dead"

with 1,120,797 file sharers who downloaded and shared files of the zombie series.

Cities with the highest number of P2P users #9

The majority of top 5 movies went through users located in major cities like Houston, Los Angeles and Chicago

#10 Most-used ISP

File sharers in the United States most frequently accessed the Internet for uploads and downloads through the ISPs

Comcast Cable, Time Warner Cable and AT&T U-verse

Source: Data from TECXIPIO PIC