Alex Dunphy

In 2007, Alex Dunphy graduated from USC with a degree in communication. She was the setter for the USC Trojan's volleyball team, including the 2003 campaign that saw the women of Troy win their second-straight NCAA National Championship title.

From 2007-13, Dunphy served as the Director of Volleyball Operations for Pepperdine's men's volleyball team. Alex is the daughter of Hall of Fame coach Dr. Marv Dunphy who has coached the Pepperdine Waves' men's volleyball team, and the USA National teams for over 35 years.

Following the 2013 volleyball season, Alex was hired as an assistant coach for the University of Miami (FL) women's volleyball team. In addition to working with the Hurricanes' setters, Dunphy also headed the recruiting program, Miami posted a 19-12 overall record in 2013 and made its fifth-consecutive appearance at the NCAA Tournament.

2014-2017, Alex was the assistant coach for the Pepperdine women's volleyball team. Her duties included working with the setters and heading up the recruiting for Pepperdine's women's program.

In 2018, Alex was hired by her alma mater as the new assistant coach at the University of Southern California, she also heads the recruiting program for the Trojans.

Ages: 6th - 12th grade

This camp is designed for setters that desire to take their skills to the next level. Emphasis will be placed on setter specific training including footwork, setting mechanics, strategies, advanced concepts including setting various tempos, Jump-setting, ball location, and running different offenses. Participants will receive advance training from one of the nation's top setting coaches. (Open to any and all entrants, limited only by age, number, and/or grade level).
