Ed - I am going to book my accommodations now so I will be in [REDACTED] beginning on January 2nd. This is further evidence demonstrating the tremendous importance of this project and our partnership. I truly appreciate your support and can't wait to help enable the project and strengthen the partnership. Sincerely, Mark

Hi Ed,

Thank you for the time today and the detail on the raw materials by step. We, like you, want everything to operate smoothly from this point forward. We also want to be sure that there are no further miscommunications, especially during this critical phase of the process and relationship (not to mention the January deadline that we have).

Given this, Eric and I would like Mark to spend the entire month of January in [REDACTED] so that he can work with your team to accomplish our mutual goal. We would like him to be [REDACTED] most days so that we are in constant communication and so that nothing slips through the cracks.

Assuming you are ok with this, we will plan accordingly.

Best,
Dan
