STAN FRASER - WALK WITH ME TOUR

Stan began his "Walk With Me 2017" adventure on Friday, June 30th at the Chetwynd Visitor Centre. He was met and encouraged by many people who have followed his journey so far to get here. A year has gone into the planning of his trip from Chetwynd to Calgary, Stan says it has had its ups and downs and has been emotional.

With sponsoring help from Stan's employer CRS as well as Wabi Farms, Stan is able to complete his journey from Chetwynd to Calgary all in the hopes of raising awareness for Mental health stigmas- Anxiety, depression and all that goes along with it.

Stan plans to walk approximately 25 km a day during the next few weeks with his estimated time of arrival in Calgary to be August 8th. Along his journey Stan is looking for encouragement on his social media accounts- Facebook, Twitter and instagram- "Walk with me 2017". Stan says he will be sharing funny stories of his journey on Facebook, Short posts on Twitter and a bunch of pictures on instagram.

Stan travelled through Dawson Creek this past weekend and is on his way to Grande Prairie, Alberta. He has his walking stick with him, which he is hoping to have completely covered in signatures and inspirational messages. While at the Visitor Info, before his journey, many gathered to support Stan and wrote on his walking stick.

Stan described his Walk with Me logo, which was created by a young girl in Edmonton. His logo shows people walking along a highway, it incorporates 4 red dots, noting the importance of the number 4 in his Cree culture. The logo shows 4 colours- yellow, red, white and black, which represents the 4 colours of the worlds population. Four also represents the 4 elements, the 4 animals, and the 4 directions. In a summary, the logo shows walking to bring the world together.

Over the past year, Stan has received a lot of support for himself and his committee and is incredibly thankful to those who have helped him get this far.

Stan was hoping to have a driver who would provide him with not only water and food, but a little emotional support. Unfortunately his shadow suffered unforeseen complications and is unable to drive alongside Stan on his trip. If you're travelling to Grande Prairie and beyond in the next few weeks, and see Stan, pull over and help him out with some water or a sandwich, it would be deeply appreciated.

If you're looking for others way to help, Tansi Friendship Centre will also be accepting donations for Stans journey, and you will receive a charitable donation receipt for your donation.

BURGERS

And double napkins, probably.

How do you top a burger that's made with 100% pure beef raised without the use of hormones or steroids? Generously, that's how. Like with a double helping of cheese and naturally smoked bacon. Because when you've made Canada's best tasting burger, there's nowhere to go but up.

Elizabeth Martens 1935 ~ 2017

Elizabeth (Betty) Martens, a longtime resident of Chetwynd, B.C. passed away quietly with her family by her side on Tuesday, June 13, 2017 in Chetwynd at the age of 81 years.

Elizabeth Katherine Martens was born on August 17, 1935 in Sexsmith, Alberta. Betty was recognized for her hard work ethic, her warm loving heart and cheerful smiles. She achieved happiness by helping people; she was presented a "Citizen of the Decade" award for her valuable contributions to the community. Betty will always be remembered for her years of service working for Westgate's IGA. This is where she loved to be serving and greeting local families; looking professional in her clean, crisp white uniform. Betty was a beautiful person, a positive role model for volunteerism and community participation. Betty will be missed tremendously by her many friends and loving family.

Betty was predeceased by her husband, John Paul Martens, her parents Helen Watson and George Badger, and her sister-in-law Marilyn Badger.

Betty is survived by her sons Rod (Cheryl) and Brad Martens, her Grandson Cory (Nichole) Martens, her Granddaughters Tina (Josh) Bassett, and Marlee Martens, her brothers: Bill (Rose) Badger and Robert (Joy) Badger, along with many loving nieces and nephews and their families.

Betty's family gathered for a graveside service on Saturday, July 1, 2017 where she was laid to rest with her husband, John, in the Tuscoola Mountain Cemetery.

The Martens family would like to thank the Chetwynd Hospital and Homecare Staff for the care you have provided to our Mother and Grandmother in her time of need.

DISTRICT OF CHETWYND MEDIA RELEASE OPEN HOUSE TO GATHER FEEDBACK FROM COMMUNITY FOR FLOOD HAZARD STUDY

Chetwynd, BC – Chetwynd residents are being asked to provide input on the District's Flood Hazard Study. An Open House will be held from 4:00-7:00 pm on July 11, 2017, at the Chetwynd District Centre; two information and input stations will also be set up at the Chetwynd District Centre and the Chetwynd & District Rec Centre for those who cannot attend the open house.

In recent years, the District of Chetwynd has experienced a number of extreme weather events resulting in substantial flooding that caused damage to infrastructure and properties, impacted the District's operating and capital budgets, and even led to the District's declaring a local state of emergency in 2016.

Working with the community, key stakeholders and its consultant, Urban Systems, the District is undertaking a Flood Hazard Study intended to help assess and lessen future risk of flooding over time.

The teenager lost a contact lens while playing basketball in his driveway. After a brief, fruitless search, he gave up. His mother took up the cause and within minutes found the lens.

"How did you do that?" he asked.

"We weren't looking for the same thing," she explained. "You were looking for a small piece of plastic. I was looking for $150."

George Schilling

1924 - 2017

George Karl SCHILLING, resident of Chetwynd, B.C. passed away suddenly on May 24, 2017, at the age of 92. George was born October 30, 1924, as the 5th oldest of six children in Bad Berka, Germany. George was predeceased by his parents, Arno and Helene Schilling, and by his brother Siegfried (who died at age 2), his brother Walter and Walter's ex wife, Betty, his brother Siegfried (yes! named after his brother who died) and Sig's wife Jean, his sister Margarete Vidal and her husband Carl. George is survived by his sister Charlotte (Lottie) Moore of Meadow Lake, Saskatchewan. Lottie's husband Vernie is also deceased. Additionally,

George is survived by numerous nieces and nephews and their families. Family and its ties were important to George and it was evident that he considered the spouses of his siblings as sisters and brothers. They were and always remained "family".

George's family immigrated to Canada in 1929. His father, along with a group of men from their district, arrived in April to establish homesteads and build houses in readiness for the wives and children who arrived in November. Uncle said that the ship ride over was a real adventure. It seemed that a number of the group, his mom included, remained in their cabins suffering from sea sickness so he spent his time exploring and roaming the ship. He was five years old and curious!

The family homesteaded in the Loon River area of northern Saskatchewan. Homesteading was a rough life but, like so many families at the time, they managed. Around 1949 George and his brothers Walter and Sig started journeying to the BC Peace for work. Sometime in the early to mid-1950s, all three brothers settled in Chetwynd. To the best of my knowledge, George worked primarily in logging and throughout the years owned various pieces of equipment. Some he operated himself but at other times the equipment was leased out, rented out or borrowed out. George also purchased Rainer's laundromat. At the time it was the first and only laundromat in Chetwynd. The house next door was part of the purchase deal. George eventually closed the laundromat but the house remained "home" until his passing.

I think most of us knew George had a thing about his hair. He was always combing it. In the family he had his own personal hair stylist, Jeana. The hair style never changed but they sure did experiment with the "blonde" colour range. Although, there was the one time that his hair was definitely orange!

George enjoyed picking wild berries and always managed to find patches of saskatoons, blueberries and huckleberries. And he knew that when he took berries to Jean he would get a freshly baked kuchen made with some of those berries. And didn't he love sugar in his tea and coffee?! Seriously, restaurants should have given him the hot beverage and charged for the sugar!

George never married but there was a time when he and Elsie Loberg were a couple. The family was happy for them both and we all thought Uncle so lucky to have met such a nice lady. We were all sad when Elsie left the relationship but understood she had her reasons.

George relied heavily on his niece, Elsie Ross, to help him with life's issues. He would go to IRC Cat Shack and get Elsie to place his phone call or to help him resolve an issue. And if Elsie wasn't there then he would trust Wanda, Tim's wife, to help him. Whenever he went into the shop Elsie and Wanda would make sure Uncle had conversation, nourishment and even a nap before he left. Elsie also made sure he kept in touch with his sister Lottie by dialling the number and handing him the phone! George was devastated, and remained confused right to the end, when he lost his licence to drive. And then a few years later when, for his protection, he became a ward of the Public Guardian and Trustee of B.C.

In closing, to all the kind folk of Chetwynd who kept a watchful eye on this tiny man walking about town; and to those in the coffee shops and restaurants that gave him drink, food and conversation; and to those that helped him when he needed it, thank you!

George's remains will be cremated and then laid to rest in Tuscoola Mountain cemetery at Chetwynd, B.C.

A Celebration of Life will be held at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, please make a donation to your favourite charity.

Funeral arrangements were entrusted to Bergeron Funeral Services & Crematorium Ltd.

She is survived by Kevin Wade Galbraith, who she married in 1984, and their children Jonathan (Cherie) Galbraith and Kayla (Steve) Johnston. ## TEDDY BEAR PICNIC AT LIBRARY

The Chetwynd Public Library held their spring program wrap up Thursday, June 29th. The theme was "Teddy Bear Picnic" and was put on for all the kids who participated in the library's weekly morning programs. Each child was invited to bring their favourite teddy, where Assistant Librarian Brenda Lukey played doctor and gave each child's stuffy a check up.

After some sandwiches and fruit, the kids were encouraged to build their own baskets, string their own necklaces, and more. The picnic ended with some teddy bear trail mix, teddy bear songs, and a cute story. All the kids thoroughly enjoyed themselves, as they always do, at the wonderful events hosted by the Chetwynd Public Library.

After the awards there was a 15 minute interactive Zumba show, that encouraged the crowd to get up and participate to fulfill a 150 participant goal. A big Thanks to Sandra for helping out, and a huge THANKS to Leo Sabulsky for all the work he has put to be able to bring Zumba to Chetwynd.

The evening carried on with the "Party in the Park" and finished with fireworks display that was fantastic, as always. Canada's 150th birthday was well celebrated all over Canada, but especially here in Chetwynd.
