BABY WELCOMING PARTY

The Chetwynd Public Library held their 14th Annual Baby Welcoming Party this past Wednesday. The theme this year was storybook characters and tons of kids under 5 showed up in their favourite costumes to help celebrate the new babies in our town. There was lots to do with a dalmatian puppy scavenger hunt, a craft table where kids could make a nest with little birdies, a photo booth, a diaper dash and a table of light snacks.

They have welcomed more than 100 babies in the 14 years of having the annual party, funded with help from Success By Six.

Many prizes were given away, including a photo shoot from Barefoot Photos, a handmade blanket from Love Covered Collective, and other items donated by Crazy Beans Bistro, Success By Six/Children First and SD59 Strong Start.

The Library reminded everyone that registration begins in the next few weeks for their various spring programs for everyone from babies to teens. You can check out their website at chetwynd.bc.libraries.coopa as well as their Facebook page for more information.
