FORT ST JOHN ROBBERY

The Fort St. John RCMP are investigating an alleged robbery at the Winks Convenience store Monday, May 23rd.

According to a release, the RCMP responded to a call at approximately 3:30 p.m. to the store at the corner of 100 Ave and 106 Street in Fort St. John. The RCMP say a lone male entered the store with his face covered and brandishing a knife.

No one was injured and the male left the building with an undisclosed amount of cash.

The male is described as caucasian, in his twenties and about 5'8" with a thin build.

The RCMP are asking for the public's help to identify the suspect. The RCMP also believe a customer saw the suspect leave in a vehicle and they are asking that person to come forward.

If you have any information about this incident, please contact the RCMP at 250-787-8100 or Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-8477.

SIDE BY SIDE THEFT – FORT ST JOHN

The Fort St John RCMP are investigating the theft of a side-by-side.

Sometime between 4:00 p.m. on Thursday, May 19, 2016 and just before 6:30 p.m. on Monday, May 23, thieves broke into a business yard on 87A Avenue and stole a 2013 Polaris Ranger XP Side by Side. The Ranger is maroon in colour and had an aftermarket light bar attached to the roof at the time of the theft.

If anyone has any information about this theft, or any other thefts of All Terrain Vehicles, they are encouraged to call the Fort St John RCMP Detachment at 250-787-8100, or Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-8477.

NEW MEMBERS NEEDED

On the first night of their honeymoon, the husband isn't sure how to tell his bride about his stinky feet and smelly socks, while the wife is wondering how to break the news to him about her awful breath, which so far, she's been able to cover up. After some soul-searching, the husband gathers his nerve and says, "I have a confession."

She draws closer, peers into his eyes and says, "Darling, so do I."

Recoiling, he says, "Don't tell me—you've eaten my socks."

Muriel Dorothy Hayward was born February 6, 1934 to Charles and Mary (neé Brough) Hayward in Ebor, Manitoba. She grew up with her sister Margaret and brother John. Muriel went to school in Ebor through grade 10 and then to Virden for her final year.

She was working at a bank when she met William Maurice Hayward. They married in 1954 and had three children: Brent, Rhonda, and Brock. They lived in many places before their final move to Chetwynd where they built the Windrem Motel. In 1973, they sold the business and moved to the Rodeo Grounds. Muriel worked as a court administrator for the Chetwynd Provincial Court until her retirement in 1994. Muriel joined the curling club, the Daughters of the Nile and the Hospital Auxiliary. She loved music and dancing. Muriel and Maurice taught most of the grandchildren to two-step. She loved games and puzzles which she played with the grandchildren. She kept up with technology, playing the first Nintendo game console. She enjoyed the slot machines at the casino. They enjoyed entertaining and often hosted the Masonic Picnic.

After retiring, Muriel and Maurice travelled to Las Vegas, Alaska, Niagara Falls, Prince Rupert, Dawson City and Yellowknife. They made yearly visits to see family in Manitoba. Muriel spoilt her grandchildren, bringing gifts whenever they travelled.

Declining health forced them to move to Rotary Manor in Dawson Creek.

In 2014, Muriel and Maurice celebrated their 60th anniversary. Sadly, two months later, Maurice passed away. Muriel continued living in Rotary Manor and was loved by many for her humour. She passed away in her sleep, her children by her side, May 4, 2016 at age 82.

Muriel was a beautiful person, inside and out; the kind of person you wanted to be. She cherished friendship and was most animated when laughing, joking and gossiping with her friends. The family has lost an important member, but will never lose the values instilled or the love given. The world would be a better place if we all loved one another. Life is too short to live with strife. Muriel created a circle for us and it is our duty to keep it strong and expand it to bring the lonely into our embrace. It is the embrace Muriel gave her family and friends.

A memorial service was held May 19, 2016 at the Bergeron Funeral Chapel, Dawson Creek, British Columbia. Pastor Cory Lizotte officiated. Expressions of sympathy in memory of Muriel may be made to the ALS Society of British Columbia, 1233 – 13351 Commerce Parkway, Richmond, British Columbia V6V 2X7.

Arrangements were entrusted to Bergeron Funeral Services & Crematorium Ltd.

SPARK 2016 STEP BOLDLY ANOTHER HUGE SUCCESS

Last week saw 200 women from across the Peace Region come together at the Pomeroy Hotel and Convention Centre to increase their leadership capacity and focus on their professional development. The program was hard-hitting and thought-provoking to everyone in the room – hard-working women who ranged from entrepreneurs working from home while raising their small children to senior management members from organizations across the community.

This was the third year for Spark in the North Peace and preliminary feedback is the sessions pushed people outside of their comfort zone and gave the attendees the tools to expand their business, grow their career, and build our communities. One attendee told the committee it was the right message at the right time to the right audience.

The Spark Steering Committee was pleased to bring in some heavy-hitters like Christopher Flett and Susannah Pierce. Their messages were frank conversations about how women get in the way of their own success. Other speakers delivered sessions focused more on hard-skill development: blogging for business, public speaking, and preparing to access contracts from bigger organizations. The program was rounded out by sessions on mindful leadership, building successful habits, and communicating for success.

This event would not be possible without the generous support of our sponsors. Their overwhelming support of the program demonstrates the value they put on their people. And people are at the core success of every business. Thank you to the sponsors and the organizations that registered their staff – each of them investing in the future success of our region.

As in previous years, the beneficiary of the conference is the Fort St John Women's Resource Society's Dress for Success program. This year the Society shared that their shelves of food are nearly bare so the attendees stepped up and did their best to take some of that pressure off. Bags and bags of food, diapers, and other essentials were brought on the second morning to help the less fortunate in our community. This is at the very core of Spark. The program is about a lifting the community up, learning from each other, and providing a network to lean on in times of need.

Planning for the 2017 event has already begun! Mark your calendars for May 16 & 17, 2017.

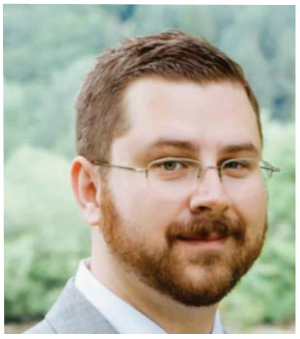
MATT'S MUSINGS



The Chetwynd International Chainsaw Carving Championship is now only two weeks away, so I thought I'd give a little history about the event. Over the next two weeks this paper will feature profiles and interviews with several of the carvers making their way here to showcase their talents, but today I want to focus on the history of the event itself. Before there was any festival, the Rendezvous '92 Committee created a chainsaw carving project as a part of celebrations for the 50th anniversary of Alaska Highway. To celebrate this historic occasion, they commissioned a carving of three bears from master carver Terry McKinnon that now forms part of the Welcome to Chetwynd sign.

In 2005, Chetwynd began the tradition of hosting the Championship, which featured seven carvers from B.C. and the United States. Five additional carvers joined the following year, and the event continued to grow in popularity with each year, drawing in international carvers from Wales, Denmark, Japan and the United Kingdom and spectators from all across North America. Last year was the 10th anniversary of the festival, but this year's seems extra special given the recent vandalism to several of the town's carvings by local youths. The entire town was incredibly upset and understandably so, as those carvings play a vital role in defining the culture and community of Chetwynd. When the carvings were attacked, people reacted strongly because it felt like an attack on the town, and one that happened with no rhyme or reason. Rather than dwell on the unfortunate incident, however, let us instead look with anticipation to the new batch of carvings we will see added to town's collection.

The carvings highlight our beautiful natural surroundings and symbolize our closeness with nature through incredibly detailed expression that can be hard to believe originated from a chainsaw unless you saw it for yourself. One of the great things about this competition is you have that opportunity, with all the carvers working in front of the public, transforming giant, indistinct logs into unique, personal works of art. This will be my first-ever competition, as I moved to Chetwynd just after last year's event took place, and I am incredibly excited for it. I hope that people turn out in record numbers to show their support for the event, the carvers, and the culture of Chetwynd, all of which we are very lucky to enjoy. Chetwynd may not have as many options as a larger city, but the festival and the resultant carvings are a unique aspect that should not be taken for granted. Come out, enjoy the scene and take some inspiration from the dedication and craftsmanship these carvers have worked so hard on. The Chetwynd International Chainsaw Carving Championship runs from June 9th-12th, and I hope to see you there.

MEET THE MAYOR

Chetwynd has had a rough week. Some of its prized carvings have fallen victim to vandalism. Who would perform such a senseless act? Whomever it was, I don't believe the act was malicious or in any way was intended to hurt anyone personally. It was just that, completely senseless. Has society failed in teaching our youth the difference between wrong and right? Or is it possible that some individuals need to break boundaries to understand where boundaries are? Whatever the case may be, it would be wise to leave the judging of these youths to the judges.

The outpouring of pride that has come from our community has made me proud to be a citizen of Chetwynd. Let me say that the task of organizing the carving event year after year is a taxing task reflected by the hard work and dedication of a group of citizens that ensures the event happens every year. It seems that no sooner does one event end and the planning begins for next year. Recent meetings have convinced me that this event is in good hands and will be secure for many years to come. These individuals deserve our gratitude as much as the carvers deserve our regard for their talents.

The question remains though, why would someone damage these works of art? If we have faith in humanity and assume that there was no desire to hurt individuals, what is the reason? All actions are carried out for a reason. Where does anger and aggression like this originate? I have said before, "We need to listen to our children." Growing up, as we all can remember, can be a very confusing time and our children need guidance through this journey. There are many influences outside of the home that can be difficult for parents to understand. These acts of vandalism are communicating something. Let's remember that these youths and their parents are members of our community and they are going through a tough time right now as well. As parents it would break our hearts to see our children in trouble with the law. We need to let the law deal with this matter and we as citizens need to keep in mind that the ultimate goal is to raise our youth to be productive members of society. It is my hope that the penalty for these acts will encompass this objective.

What do we do now as proud citizens? The 2016 carving event is weeks away. These acts should in no way hinder this event. The carvers will show up as they have every other year and as always, we will be amazed at the works of art that they have the mind to imagine, and the talent to create. Again, let's not pass judgment on the motives of these youths. I'm sure that we all have had that moment in our lives where we made a bad decision we aren't proud of.

People will pay a crazy amount of money to eat a lobster, despite the fact that it displays all three of the classic biological characteristics of an insect, namely:

a) It has way more legs than necessary.

b) There is no way you could ever pet it.

c) It does not respond to simple commands such as, "Here, boy!"
