Pike was last seen on May 5, 2016 and police are very concerned for his health and well-being. Friends and family report that it is out of character for him to be out of contact for this long.

He was last seen wearing: blue jeans and a black hoodie.

CHETWYND ANNUAL PITCH IN WEEK

Chetwynd's annual Pitch-In Week begins today, and Mayor Merlin Nichols is encouraging all citizens to get outside and help out in the effort to make Chetwynd as beautiful as possible. Chetwynd has participated in the program for several years, which Mayor Nichols hopes will result in "a cleaner, more attractive community." He went on to say that "Chetwynd is our home and, like my personal residence, I want to keep our community clean." The Mayor hopes everyone in town will get involved, picking up litter in their neighbourhoods and in the streets near their businesses, as well as nearby parks, playgrounds and boulevards. "Where litter is found, just pick it up and pitch it in," added the Mayor, who scheduled the week for May rather than April to account for Chetwynd's often unpredictable weather. With the annual Chainsaw Carving Competition a month away, it's the perfect time to help make Chetwynd look as good as we can, so take a little time, pick up some litter and do your part to beautify your surroundings.
