Non Profits Awarded From ChetTV Bingo

Due to the sizable donations of the very successful Chet TV BINGO, a few Non Profit Organizations between Dawson Creek and Chetwynd, will be able to breathe a little easier. BINGO is now over for the summer, and I am sure more than a few people are sad about that. Thursday night BINGO, in some homes has become a regular ritual of games, food, friends and a great time. Congratulations to the following groups

- $43,000 for School District #59
- $70,000 for the Salvation Army
- $75,000 for the Bethel Pentacostal Church
- $25,000 for the Child Development Centre
- $25,000 for the Nawican Friendship Centre

Kick off to Chetwynd's First Virtual Run

The morning of August 4 was the kick off for the first ever Chetwynd Virtual Run. The 36 residents that signed up for the event will have from August 4 to August 9 to complete a 60 minute run/walk or activity that they enjoy. Organizers are hoping for lots of videos and pictures to be turned in by those participating. What a great idea for promoting active lifestyles!
