ALBERTA DEFICIT SEES PEACE REGION FUEL PRICE SPIKE

The recent spree of tax hikes announced in Alberta due to that province's fiscal deficit are also going to be having an impact in the Peace Region.

In a few weeks, two price increases are planned, and with the gas tax increase, the Peace Region will be increasing on average 1.

This short notice means that communities such as Tumbler Ridge, and Hudson's Hope may be seeing fuel shortages in the coming days due to residents stocking up on cheaper fuel. Residents are urged to ration their fuel and find alternate transportation sources, such as electric vehicles, buses, bicycles, and even riding on horseback.

Local fuel providers will not be taking phone calls on this matter, and are urging residents to just fuel up and appreciate that we are helping out our Albertan neighbors deal with their deficit budget. Peace FM will monitor the line ups for fuel this morning and will have an update on fuel supply quantities later.

PREPARE YOUR HOME FOR SPRING

(NC) Winter weather can wreak havoc on homes and gardens across Canada. Complete this home maintenance checklist from The Home Depot Canada before the warm weather breaks to ensure your outdoor space is ready for spring enjoyment.

1. If your home experienced any leaking or flooding, you must first dry out the area. Use towels, a mop and bucket or a wet/dry vacuum to remove the water that entered your home. Ensure you replace any affected drywall and clean carpets or upholstery thoroughly to prevent mould growth.
2. Your roof takes quite a beating through the winter months. Once the warmer weather hits, take a look for any shingles that blew away or were damaged. Replace them to ensure your roof is waterproof ahead of spring showers.
3. Remove debris from your gutters using your hand or a leaf blower and run water from a garden hose down the eaves troughs. This will keep drainage running smoothly away from your home as rainfall increases in the spring.
4. In early spring, clean your deck with a power washer to remove stains and dirt build-up. On a dry day, apply a new coat of sealant to protect the deck from moisture damage, fungus growth and ultraviolet light in the summer ahead.
5. Get your yard ready for growing season by raking your lawn to remove winter debris, and pruning your perennials and trees ahead of their new growth.

WEEKLY HOROSCOPE

ARIES (Mar. 21- April 20) This is a turning point. Make changes to your living quarters that will please the family. You will be in contact with those who can provide you with valuable information and knowledge. Your lucky day this week will be Sunday.

TAURUS (Apr. 21- May 21) Look before you leap. Look into alternate means of supporting your financial burdens. Creative educational pursuits will payoff. You can make excellent investments if you are in the right place at the right time. Your lucky day this week will be Monday.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21) You need to look into some private matters before you can proceed with your plans. Minor fevers or infections will develop if you're over-stressed. Your lucky day this week will be Sunday.

CANCER (June 22-July 22) Take time to visit someone who has been confined due to illness. You can make personal changes that will enhance your appearance and bring you greater popularity. You can make money through your own creative efforts. Your lucky day this week will be Saturday.

LEO (July 23-Aug 22) Secret affairs will only lead to deception. Avoid any petty ego confrontations; they could lead to estrangement if you aren't careful. Reevaluate your position and make decisions about your future goals. Your lucky day this week will be Saturday.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 -Sept. 23) Romantic opportunities will be plentiful if you go out with friends. You may want to take a serious look at your goals and objectives. You will need a little competition this week. Catch up on correspondence. Your lucky day this week will be Wednesday.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 -Oct. 23) Your partner will be emotionally unable to cope. You are best to avoid such unsavoury circumstances, especially if you're in a group situation. You will want to complain about the injustice that is going on. Your lucky day this week will be Wednesday.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22) Get involved in activities that will stretch your stamina. Reevaluate your position and make decisions about your future goals. Talk to an older family member you have helped in the past. Your lucky day this week will be Thursday.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 -Dec. 21) You could lose money or precious belongings if you aren't careful. You may cause a fuss if you come on too strongly in public. You will enjoy events that lean toward theatre, art, or music this week. Don't let the cat out of the bag. Your lucky day this week will be Saturday.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22.- Jan. 20) Co-workers may not be completely honest with you; try not to rely on help from others. You can discuss your intentions and ideas with your colleagues or friends this week. You must refrain from overspending on entertainment. Your lucky day this week will be Monday.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 -Feb. 19) Chronic health problems are likely to surface if you are keeping your problems locked up inside. Take the time to sort out your personal papers and double-check your financial investments. Your lucky day this week will be Monday.

PISCES (Feb. 20-Mar. 20) You may find that others do not do things the way you want; however, if the job gets done, let it pass. You can make the most headway if you put in some overtime. You're in the mood to spend time with your lover. Your lucky day this week will be Sunday.

USE A NATURAL SOLUTION TO COMMON DIGESTIVE AILMENTS

(NC) The discomfort and embarrassment of indigestion, or painful heartburn, can really throw a wrench into our plans. Some people begin to avoid social situations involving food because of the unpredictability of their digestive system. Don't let this happen to you. The Canadian Health Food Association (CHFA) has some simple, natural solutions to address two common digestive issues Canadians face – heartburn and intestinal discomfort due to bloating and gas.

Heartburn, also called gastric reflux, is a common gastro-intestinal symptom with a number of dietary triggers. This burning sensation in the chest area (close to the heart) is the result of stomach acid backing up into your esophagus.

There are a number of food triggers that can make heartburn worse. These include coffee and other caffeinated beverages, alcohol, citrus fruits, tomato products, fatty foods and spicy foods. Identifying and removing trigger foods from your diet can immediately reduce this symptom.

Taking antacids for heartburn can provide short-term relief, but they can also lead to other digestive complications. Instead, try adding more fibre to your diet, which keeps your digestive tract moving and prevents back up. Also, eating five or six smaller meals throughout the day, rather than three large meals, reduces the chance of overloading your digestive tract. Lastly, try to stay upright for at least two to three hours after your meal to let the food move down through your system. This also means you should avoid eating right before bed to allow your body time to start digesting before lying down.

When it comes to excess bloating due to intestinal gas, over-eating and inadequate chewing of food are common causes. Taking your time with meals and chewing food thoroughly can contribute to less swallowed air. In the large intestine, gas can also be produced by intestinal bacteria as they digest fibre, starches and carbohydrates – and it is the health of the bacteria in your gut that heavily influences your own digestive health. Keep the good bacteria happy and thriving by eating a balanced diet consisting of fibre-rich whole foods. Adding a probiotic supplement to your routine can also help you establish the healthy gut flora required to support optimal digestive health.

CHETWYND MAYOR DEFENDS PINE RIVER GAS PLANT

Chetwynd Mayor Merlin Nichols is downplaying the recent label of the Pine River Gas Plant as the largest single polluter in the province.

Mayor Nichols feels that not only is the air pollution from the plant part of the cost of doing business, but that when put in the grand scheme of things, the plant isn't contributing as many polluting gases as the sources of pollution found in the Lower Mainland and other more populated areas.

Spectra Energy's Pine River Gas Plant, which is located on a district exclave about 45 kilometres west of the main Chetwynd townsite, is by far the biggest single emitter of major air pollutants, according to an annual pollutant inventory report released by Environmant Canada back in December.

The plant emitted 12,021 tonnes of sulphur dioxide in 2013, which is close to the amounts that were emitted back in 1998.

Though those numbers are high they do not exceed Environment Canada's limits, which are levels that would begin to pose a risk to human health. The concentration levels were found to have dissipated drastically in Hassler, the closest settlement to the plant. The plant also emits far less greenhouse gases than Spectra's Fort Nelson Processing Plant, which is the province's largest emitter of such gases.

The provincial government recently released the Human Health Risk Assessment of Oil and Gas Activity in the Northeast, which found that the health risk from oil and gas activities remains low. Fort St. John hosted an information session on those findings on Tuesday night, which was attended by 16 members of the public. The next info session is scheduled for April 8th at the Northern Lights College Campus in Dawson Creek.

DAWSON CREEK RCMP RESPONDS TO SUSPECT ABUSING DOG

The Dawson Creek RCMP has arrested a male suspect on a number of charges – including animal abuse.

Police received a call on March 28, 2015 that a male was seen hitting a dog multiple times, according to Cpl. Dave Tyreman.

“Upon arrival, the male fled from police tossing his dog over a fence and attempting to flee through back yards to escape custody,” writes Cpl. Tyreman. “Police located the 33-year-old man at a residence where a struggle ensued during the arrest.”

Cpl. Tyreman says the suspect also provided police with a false name, and upon further investigation, it was revealed that the male had previously assaulted a female.

The suspect, whose name is not being released, is facing one count of assault, one count of forcible confinement, one count of personation, two counts of resisting arrest, and one count of willfully causing unnecessary pain to an animal.

The suspect remained in custody until his first court appearance on March 30, 2015.
