FEATURE BUSINESS BIOGRAPHY LIANA'S HAIR DESIGN

Earlier this week I met with Liana and Katie Labby of Liana's Hair Design, fully serviced spa. Liana has been operating out of her new location in the downtown core of Chetwynd on 51st St for the past year and a half.

She has been a hair stylist for over 24 years, 13 of those with New Image and another 9 in the Premier building.

She now has her salon in a great location for all passersby to see.

Liana is a Schwarzkopf hair product representative and has a lot of experience with cuts, colours and styles for men, women and kids.

She also does hair for weddings, prom, grad and all other special occasions.

Katie, Liana's daughter, has joined Liana in her salon to create a full service spa offering eyebrow microblading, Micha eyelash glaze, nails, facials and much more!

Katie has been professionally trained as an Esthetician and has a lot of experience and has worked in salons in both Prince George and Fort St. John.

Katie even travels to help her clients, sometimes even to the hospital to help those who can't come to the salon.

If you're new to town and looking for an experienced full service spa, be sure to check out Liana and Katie at Liana's Hair design on 51st St here in Chetwynd.

MEET THE MAYOR

March 17, 2017

Have you ever been lost? I know I have. Maybe you've been lost driving in a strange city, hiking in the wilderness, or like my wife and I, who inadvertently bicycled into the wrong neighborhood in the downtown east side of Vancouver on our tenth anniversary. Moving to a new community can bring the same uncertainty. Imagine, you are uprooted from everything that's familiar to you, and dropped into a new surrounding. Where do you go? What is there to do? How do you meet people? Simple things that we, long term residents, take for granted can be unfamiliar to new residents. Where to get prescriptions filled, book clubs, activities for children, or cooking classes. Did some just think "Cooking Classes?" Yes, there is a Cooking Class in Chetwynd. Where do we as citizens, established and new, find out about such programs? At the Chetwynd Public Library!

There is a new program in town. The Chetwynd Community Ambassador Program. There are many people who move to Chetwynd that can benefit from an indoctrination into our community. In recent discussions with the Library Director, I have learned that the original function of a library was not to lend books. Many of us who have raised children in Chetwynd I'm sure appreciate the abundance of free programs at the library. However, the original purpose of a library was to be the focal meeting place of a community. This is part of the vision of the vibrant staff and board at our library.

This program will be useful to all citizens, new and established. If you are an established citizen, maybe you've fallen into complacency. Perhaps you are finding it difficult to find activities in town to enjoy. This program is available to you as well. There are book clubs, exercise programs, committees and societies looking for members. If you are an established resident that knows an abundance of activities in town, you may be someone that this program is looking for to volunteer or to provide information about the happenings in Chetwynd.

I must admit, I don't know a lot about this program as of yet. It is my plan to drop in soon to see how it is progressing. If my experience at our local library holds true, they are here to serve our community's needs, and there is no doubt that they will continue to do so in this capacity.. Whoever drops in asking for assistance will receive whatever they are looking for. Through these interactions, this program will develop quickly, based on what is needed by our citizens, new and established. This is a community initiative. If there are new groups and activities in town, let's be sure to let the library know.

People reading this report will likely encounter new citizens to Chetwynd soon. Let us all do our part as Ambassadors of Chetwynd, and refer these folks to our Public Library so that they can experience all that we have grown to enjoy in our community.

KELSEY'S CHRONICLE

Leprechauns and shamrocks, St. Patrick's Day is here, grab your goblet of green beer! St. Patrick's Day has been celebrated since the mid 1700's and usually involves parades, music, dancing, a feast of great proportions and, of course, a hefty amount of alcohol. What better day to celebrate this day than Friday? In Newfoundland and Labrador, the day is actually classified as a public holiday. Celebrated in many places across the world, those who celebrate with parties try to incorporate as many green dishes as possible. Here are a few ideas that are just delightful: grasshopper pie, pistachio pudding, spinach dip, broccoli alfredo and pesto pizza. The last two I have made a time or two and they are definitely worth a try. They also look super chic and are a great alternative to tomato pizza and pasta sauce.

How about a drink other than the normal green beer? Why not try "Shamrock Juice," a mix of your favourite clear spirit, blue curacao and orange juice? "Emerald Rain" is another drink which is a mix of hypnotique and orange juice. If you're a fan of mint you could make a "Misty Green," which is a mix of creme de menthe and white rum. Any of these drinks will make you the host with the most at your St. Paddy's Day party.

The folklore that comes along with St. Patrick's Day all comes back to the little red cheeked mischievous mite in all green, the leprechaun! Leprechauns are said to guard a pot of gold at the end of every rainbow, and if you were to catch one of these little guys they would grant you 3 wishes in exchange for their freedom.

One neat thing I found about the celebrations that take place on St. Patrick's Day is that in Chicago they use a vegetable dye (and have been for the past 50 years) to change the water in the Chicago River emerald green. This only lasts a few hours but brings people from all around to witness the change.

Another funny tradition is the group of folks dressed as leprechauns that change signs all over New London, Wisconsin and New Dublin. It began as a prank and has turned into a yearly tradition.

I also came across a few misconceptions about St. Paddy's Day. The first was that the shamrock (which many believe is the name for both 3 and 4 leaf clovers) is actually only the name for the 3 leaf clover, and a 4 leaf clover is simply known as a 4 leaf clover. Did you know St. Patrick was actually not Irish at all? He was from Britain and was kidnapped by Irish pirates when he was 16. He was known for bringing Christianity to the Irish when he finally escaped slavery 17 years later and that's why everyone believed he was Irish.

If you plan to drink on this day that is known for the most amount of alcohol consumed out of any other day of the year for over a century, please be responsible and plan a safe ride home.

IS THE ECONOMY CHANGING FOR THE BETTER?

This week in Chetwynd 4 new businesses opened up! Is this the beginning of an again thriving community in Chetwynd? With the opening of the mines and several other projects happening around town, is this the light at the end of the tunnel for our town? There is a significant amount of more people in town because of the mines and these projects and anyone who was in town last summer will have noticed the difference in the community.

Giftopia had its grand opening this past Monday and owner Stephanie Goldade is more than happy to have her store open. Her store is a great mix of rustic home decor and local artisan's products.

Trend Session Apparel opened up on Tuesday and has clothing for both men and women, teens and adults. Owner Tara Schlosser described the opening of her store as finally having the right timing, as she had been wanting to open this business for a while.

Chinook Wind Outfitters, a fly fishing supplier, began business this past week for all your fly fishing needs.

Jacklynn Redenbach and Adele Manuel have just expanded their operations and moved to a new building, which has a full spa for all your beauty needs.

All of these new businesses are indicators that Chetwynd's economy is growing again and will hopefully give everyone the extra incentive to continue to shop local.

PROVINCE TO INVEST $500-MILLION OVER THE NEXT FOUR YEARS FOR SENIORS

$500-million will be invested over the next four years to improve care for seniors within British Columbia by The Province. The Province says that this funding from the Ministry of Health will help health care authorities to reach a consistent average of 3.36 direct-care hours per resident per day for both publicly administered and contracted residential-care facilities. B.C. will also be helping to meet the increase of hours by working with health authorities and industry to hire close to 1,500 additional staff, including health-care assistants, nurses, occupational therapists and physiotherapists. The government says these investments were made possible due to the increase in the Ministry of Health budget for 2017.

QUINTESSENTIAL QUILTERS GUILD

It was a 15 year dream come true for Margaret Mabijs, coordinator of the showcase that boasted beautiful pieces of fabric art. The members of the Quintessential Quilters Guild of Chetwynd formed an "Art Group" to create an array of fabulous pieces of fabric art for the gallery's display.

Several projects had been chosen from design books and worked through together as a group. Many of the quilters have travelled to attend art quilt workshops and brought the knowledge and skills back to share with the group. A variety of different techniques are shown throughout the pieces on display.

Marilyn Fallow, who attended the reception as a special guest, had her amazing pottery on display. Marilyn has been making pottery for several years and has been selling her pieces for the past 5 years. She uses different kinds of clay for her pieces and all pieces are completely hand crafted.

Even if you missed the reception this past Friday, don't miss your chance to see these incredible pieces of fabric art, set up in the Arts and Cultural Centre, open week days between 11-2pm. This showcase from the Quintessential Quilter's Art Group will be on display until March 17th.
