PROJECT 229 S Dubuque Street
Iowa City, IA

Mixed-use Development

This mixed-used development is located on a primary street entering downtown Iowa City amongst both historic and modern buildings. The design of this five-story building sought to respect the historic context while incorporating some more modern architectural features. The height and massing of the building was intended to both maximize building occupancy and strengthen the urban fabric of downtown.

