Mystery of the Smashed Cupcake

WAS IT MRS. WHITE IN THE STUDY WITH THE KNIFE?

As the best-selling author of "Love on Bakery Lane," Mrs. White only complains about the price of sugar (powdered and pure-cane).

OR MR. GREEN IN THE CONSERVATORY WITH THE WRENCH?

His green thumb has made him millions as the leading producer of spices, so when his mint plants turned to mush, Mr. Greene's reputation was tarnished and stock prices for Greene's Garden Spices dropped to record lows.

OR PROFESSOR PLUM IN THE LIBRARY WITH THE LEAD PIPE?

Professor Plum simply adores research, but when a famous baking tycoon pulled all of the financial funding from a project of a lifetime, things turn dire.

OR MISS SCARLET IN THE BALLROOM WITH THE CANDLESTICK?

Miss Scarlet's Wedding Cakes have really taken off since she perfected the signature frosting rose on the top on her cakes, but often wonders, "who's my competition now?"

OR COLONEL MUSTARD IN THE BILLIARD ROOM WITH THE REVOLVER?

After Cake Wars, Colonel Mustard spent every day in the billiard halls and blames sweet treats for every failure, cupcakes are his biggest weakness of them all.

OR MRS. PEACOCK IN THE STUDY WITH THE ROPE?

As the Founder of Flour Power, Mrs. Peacock can enjoy a cup of tea and a good book, but not without looking over her shoulder; is someone about to take over her empire?

OR DR. PEACH IN THE KITCHEN WITH THE KNIFE?

Dr. Peach earned a doctorate in Jamology, perfecting the perfect peach jam, then, along came the cupcake, a delectable dessert that tanked the Jam Business.
