Virtual Sip and Paint Night

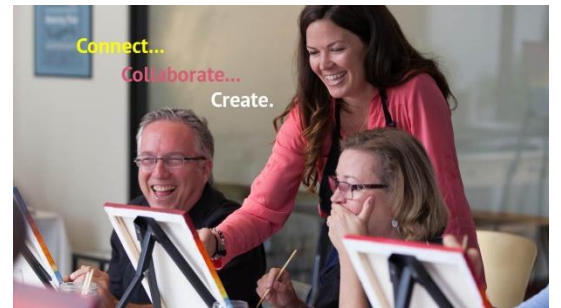

A virtual painting happy hour, guided by artist, Kimball Willson. This event is for all skill levels - if you have not painted before, come join us and learn; if you are used to painting, hope you still join us and have fun connecting with us.

Kimball Willson is a lifelong artist with professional success in both marketing and sales that spans numerous industries. By combining her passion and professional experience, she launched her team building company, Corporate To Canvas, in 2018. Through customized guided painting activities, teams connect in a fun environment that results in more creativity and collaboration.

If you need supplies, please order as soon as possible, as the supplies can take at least a week to arrive. Check out <https://www.corporatetocanvas.com/materials.html>
