THE STATUS OF THE MESSENGER AND HIS RIGHTS

The Scholar of Hadeeth, al-'Allaamah Rabee' Ibn Haadee al-Madkhalee

Translation by Abu Hafsa Kashiff Khan

FROM THE INTRODUCTION:

“Indeed, the noble Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ) has a great rank, and a high status that none from the creation has attained, for indeed he will be the leader of the children of Aadam (عليه السلام) on the Day of Resurrection; Aadam (عليه السلام) and the rest of mankind will be under his leadership. He has been bestowed ash-shafaa'atul-udhmaa (the great intercession) from which the Messengers (عليه السلام) of strong will excuse themselves and it has been singled out for him by Allaah, and Allaah has chosen him over the rest of the creation for it. Certainly, his Lord (ﷻ) honoured him with noble qualities that were not given to any of the Messengers before him, and all of them have a lofty station with Allaah.” End of Shaykh Rabee's words.

This unique work is especially needed in our times, when the noble Messenger of Islaam is being attacked and slandered in popular media. It also serves as a reminder to the Muslim about the lofty status that Allaah the Glorified and Exalted has given His Prophet (ﷺ). Amongst other issues, the author propounds his (ﷺ) noble character, excellent appearance, bravery, compassion and knowledge of Allaah.

In addition to this, this book also covers the obligation of obedience to the Messenger of Allaah (ﷺ), his rights upon his Ummah and his advocacy for Tawheed. Lastly, this work gives a balanced view concerning love for the Messenger, sending peace and blessings upon him, the mannerisms of sending peace and blessings and loving and respecting his Family.
