2016 BEST REAL ESTATE AGENT

Ricardo Rodriguez, Coldwell Banker

This Realtor about town markets some of the city's most exclusive properties, primarily in the South End. One key project is the Lucas, a condo conversion at the former German Trinity Catholic Church site. His listings are glam, and so is he: Rodriguez has also been a creative director for fashion designer Daniela Corte. But he's refreshingly down to earth, too—the rare real estate agent who feels less like a salesperson and more like an old pal.
