Leaving When?

We are ready to go. Well, we think we are. We have almost all the pieces in place to return to Papua New Guinea and continue the ministry of Bible translation. The needs are such that we are anxious to return and empower God's people there to get involved in translating the Bible into their own languages. Our Solos team also stands in need of personal encouragement and advisor assistance.

It looks as though our furlough will be extended by two—or possibly three—months. We still plan to arrive in PNG this summer, but the exact timing is now in flux because we are not yet at 100% of our monthly budget (see Back Page for details and how you can help). Please pray with us that God will call the remaining partners of this team to step forward. Pray, believing the verse on the sidebar, both for us and for the peoples of Papua New Guinea who still need God's Word in their heart languages.

But my God shall supply
all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus.

Ephesians
4:19

Travel Log

We had a great weekend in Kansas City April 10-12, then we were on the road until we arrived home late on Monday, May 11. Thousands of miles, some minor van repairs, and many travel hours connected us with our (continued...)

COUNTDOWN: 35% TO GO
We are so close to returning to PNG! Since the last newsletter we have come a long way. When the final 35% of our monthly budget is pledged, we can go! Any regular investment adds up. Even one-time gifts can be spread out over the four years to help us get to 100%.
Be Our Advocate!
Are you already partnering with us? What can you do to help? Introduce us to your friends. One of our difficulties at this point is that we're running out of people to talk to.
If you have friends who you think might be interested in Bible translation or missions in general, email or call/text us with their contact information and how you're connected (family, co-worker, church family, etc.) This could also be those who may have missed our service at your church.
