

Village Institute for Sustainable Technologies & Agriculture

In support of the VISTA Gardens' community, below are the current committees with which to volunteer.

Name	Description	Chair
Compost	Turn & sift to create composted soil for the garden.	jwentzel7@aol.com MJ Wentzel
Marketing	Promote the garden to the community and finds fundraising opportunities.	Open
Education	Identify opportunities to bring in people to teach organic gardening, techniques, nutrition and other appropriate topics.	barb@naturalchoicenutrition.com Barb Mahlmeister
Social	Create fun activities for the membership outside of gardening.	lauriek123@gmail.com Laurie Kleiner
Membership	Maintain roster of members, garden map.	Open
Children's and Shade Garden	Create a welcoming activity space readily available for yoga, Tai Chi, and other special events, such as MIRA, USA gatherings.	morcieanderson@gmail.com Morcie Anderson
Landscape, Garden & Plot Design. Includes: -House of Rising Seeds -Demonstration Garden -Herb Container Garden -Garden Art -Hugelkultur /Digging	Plan for areas such as kids' area, fire pit, gazebo, etc -Organization, maintenance & education of the green/seed house. -Seed, transplant, and tend herbs as needed. Develop plant info for each herb variety. -Arts and crafts for common areas and events.	legacyofcaring.ro@gmail.com Roberta Owens kewrose@gmail.com Karen Rose annef761@gmail.com Anne Funkehouser ekwhitaker@tampabay.rr.com Ellen Whitaker Open rolfe4108@yahoo.com Rolfe Evenson
Volunteer	Recruit and manage recurring and special event volunteers.	Open
Communications	Create, distribute and maintain distribution list for weekly VISTA Matters newsletter (mid Aug – mid Jun). Build and maintain content on	leahgator@gmail.com Leah Wooten vistagardentampa.org web site. Curate and monitor social media presence on Facebook, Instagram and Pinterest.

Village Institute for Sustainable Technologies & Agriculture

Infrastructure	Maintenance of equipment, infrastructure and other assets. Landscape design and grounds maintenance.	martink4321@gmail.com Marty Kleiner
Kids Events		coachloriv@gmail.com Lori Vella
Millennial Outreach		morcieanderson@gmail.com Morcie Anderson