BLOOMIN’ ANTIQUES on THE COMMON in FITZWILLIAM, NEW HAMPSHIRE

Bloomin’ Antiques is not just an antique shop, it is a labor of love that comprises career and home for owner Gary Taylor. Gary and his partner, Bob Camara, jumped at the chance to open their first antique store in Fitzwilliam in 1977 using $10,000 Gary won in a raffle, eventually moving to the shop’s current location on the Fitzwilliam Common. Gary and Bob were “fussy” about their stock; focusing on genuine antique furniture and accessories from the 18th, 19th, and early 20th centuries. Quality and craftsmanship are their bywords; you won’t find particle board at Bloomin’ Antiques. Gary says the best part of nearly forty years in business in Fitzwilliam has been the people they have met along the way, making many lasting friendships, sometimes with entire families. Since Bob passed away in late 2012, Gary has carried on their traditions of quality and community involvement, and he is as particular about what Bloomin’ Antiques sells as ever.

MASTERPIECES CAKE ART of STODDARD, NEW HAMPSHIRE

Dan Liberatore, owner of MasterPieces Cake Art, began creating cakes and specialty desserts 30 years ago. After working for many years in the healthcare industry, Dan - a Registered Respiratory Therapist and Health Educator with a Master’s Degree – recently transitioned to baking full-time. His style is unique, and he really enjoys expressing a customer’s personality in the form of a cake. Often times, a cakes begins with an idea such as, “We’d like a ‘gold, glam’ cake in the shape of Italy”, or, “Uncle Dan, go outside and look at the sky…That’s what we want our cake to look like”. Dan’s cakes run the gamut, from simple dessert cakes to cakes that look like cats (or pretty much whatever you want them to look like) to one of a kind wedding cakes, and he thoroughly enjoys meeting new customers as well as providing sweet treats to those who keep coming back for more.

LIFE IS SWEET on CENTRAL SQUARE in KEENE, NEW HAMPSHIRE

Life is Sweet, the candy-cupcake-ice cream shop on Central Square, has been a part of downtown Keene since 2006. First on West Street, then next to the Colonial Theater, it moved to its present location in 2012. Life is Sweet offers mouth-watering treats, including both familiar and exotic British and Japanese candies, fudge, cupcakes, truffles and other chocolates, drinks, and ice cream. One of the best things about Life is Sweet is that the customer can mix and match many of the candies, taking home a variety that isn’t available in pre-packaged candy offerings. The shop offers local delivery, gifts, catering, parties, and special events.

When you drive west on 101 past Winchester Street, it’s hard to miss the shiny new cars on display outside of Autex Mazda. But Autex Mazda, which started out in Winchester Plaza (where WalMart is now) over 25 years ago, does more than sell new cars – it also sells used cars, services vehicles of all makes and models, and supports the Keene community, through participation in a variety of charitable organizations including Cedar Crest Center for Children with Disabilities, the United Way, Toys for Tots, Make a Wish, Vets-Cars.com, and the Saint Joseph Regional School Auction!

Inside, you will see Wall of Honor boards signed by over one hundred satisfied Veterans who have found great deals at Autex Mazda, a certified 2017 Mazda Gold Cup dealer – an award for having the highest standards of excellence in sales and service. Autex Mazda strives to be a good steward of the environment with their all-environmentally-friendly undercoating and rust-proofing program, as well as good value – their mechanics are all Mazda and ASE certified, including two certified Master Mechanics. The service department practices a conservative philosophy, only recommending what your car really needs.

UNDERNEATH IT ALL on DEPOT STREET in PETERBOROUGH, NEW HAMPSHIRE

Did you know that there is a shop in Peterborough specializing in bra fittings? It is Underneath It All, owner Tammy Woodard’s goal to make every woman look and feel her best during the day or night. Tammy knows how to get you into the right size bra, making it an easy process, and she has a huge selection of styles and sizes, including “beginners”. Underneath It All also carries women’s clothing made of quality fabrics, including great choices of lounge, sleepwear and robes made to be extremely soft and comfortable. All of them are machine washable. You can check out the latest on her Facebook page. Community and ecology minded, Tammy started out selling jewelry, bath products, teas, coffees and more at Green Angel Cottage in Peterborough. Over and over again Tammy heard complaints how woman could not buy undergarments in Peterborough, so she decided to fill that need. After starting out in the back of Depot Square nearly six years ago, Underneath It All has grown, expanded, and now moved to the front of the Square to a larger store. Tammy has a large, loyal customer base and welcomes everyone. You can call Tammy to make an appointment or just drop in!

SUMMER FEET CYCLING BICYCLE TOURS of PORTLAND, MAINE

Summer Feet Cycling came about as a result of founder Norman Patry’s love of Maine, love of cycling, and love of summer. Through Summer Feet, Norman and his staff offer a variety of guided bicycle tours in Maine, Quebec, Nova Scotia, and Italy. Tours are offered May through October, and include exciting day trips in Portland and Kennebunk, like the “Lobster Roll” and “Explore Casco Bay”, as well as weekend trips like “Sailboats and Summer Folk”, a tour of Camden, Maine, “Exploring Acadia”, and “Beaches and Backroads” in Kennebunk. In the mood for a weeklong tour? They offer such exotic fare as “La Belle Campagne” in Quebec, “Bike Across Italy”, “An Acadian Adventure” in Nova Scotia, “Bike and Eat Maine”, “Maine’s Gold Coast”, and “Boats, Bikes and Boots” - described as a “mostly human powered and all non-motorized traverse of the Maine coast” traveling by bicycle, sailboat, kayak, and foot. All tours are accompanied by two leaders and a support vehicle. They also include a bicycle, to which you are fitted by Summer Feet personnel, stays at “the finest bed and breakfast inns”, snacks and meals, and the opportunity to explore on your own. The best part is that every tour is suitable for multiple levels, from beginner to advanced cyclists.

CHESHIRE JEWELERS in the CENTER AT KEENE in KEENE, NEW HAMPSHIRE

If you are interested in fine jewelry and watches, or even if you just need repairs to some that you already own, you should stop by Cheshire Jewelers and see what they have on offer. If the faces seem familiar, that’s because you’ve known them for a long time! Shelley, the owner, and Laura, the manager, were part of Cheshire Goldsmiths, which formerly occupied the same location. They opened Cheshire Jewelers in October 2015 with a new look, but the same quality, variety, skill and craftsmanship that they have always brought to their enterprise. Cheshire Jewelers offers and custom-makes both new and estate pieces. No matter whether your taste runs to dramatic and eye-catching or understated elegance, Cheshire Jewelers has a piece for you (or your sweetheart!)

INKBERRY of MARLBOROUGH, NEW HAMPSHIRE

Ron Yantiss owns, manages, and operates INKBERRY, which incorporates a multitude of creative services related to art, photography and memorabilia or collections presentation. Inkberry, which is located on the 101 in Marlboro, offers custom printing, restoration, graphic design, and digital imaging services as well as titling of framed pieces and museum quality framing. Mr. Yantiss has been providing customers with personal, quality creations to frame and preserve their art, photos and mementos for over thirty years. You can get a look at some of Mr. Yantiss’ work at his website, Inkberry.com. So whether it’s a more traditional type of frame or a custom designed frame box for a treasured memento or collection that you need, think of Inkberry, on the 101 (107 Main Street) in Marlboro, and don’t forget to tell Mr. Yantiss that you appreciate his support of our school!

TIM CAMPBELL of KEENE, NEW HAMPSHIRE

TIM CAMPBELL is a local “outsider” artist whose work is in galleries throughout New England, including Cape Cod, as well as Atlanta, San Francisco, and the American Folk Art Gallery in New York City. Mr. Campbell was also selected by “Early American Life” magazine as the “2010 Best”. He paints and creates sculptural pieces entirely from recycled wood and metal. His paintings include bird’s eye maps of locations such as Martha’s Vineyard and Provincetown; North American birds; Animals as People, which are giclee prints; and “Sito Seed Company, Keene, NH” packets, which are printed on 11” x 14” canvas. Tim is the Artist in Residence at HANNAH GRIMES MARKETPLACE (another SJRS donor); his works are unique and difficult enough to describe that in order to appreciate them you really should see some. You can do that at HANNAH GRIMES, THE SHIPPING SHACK, or MONADOCK IMAGING (also donors) where Tim’s art is available on prints, postcards, tote bags, coasters and jewelry.

ABENAKI SPRINGS FARM in WALPOLE, NEW HAMPSHIRE and at the KEENE FARMERS’ MARKET

ABENAKI SPRINGS FARM, a family operation run by the Bickfords in Walpole, sells produce at the Farmers’ Market of Keene year ’round and through their CSA, which provides members with prepaid produce from May through October. CSA stands for Community Supported Agriculture, an arrangement through which customers and farmers provide mutual support, for the benefit of both. Members buy a share of the harvest before the season begins, and farmers use the early income to order seeds and supplies to get production underway. Bruce Bickford has been farming for more than twenty years, using organic methods from the beginning. Bruce grows berries, herbs and vegetables in rotational production on his 11 acres of prime farm land in Walpole, Abenaki Springs Farm. The Bickford family strives to go beyond “organic” by applying biodynamic principles and remineralizing the soil. This in turn creates healthy, nutrient dense food that can resist disease and pests naturally, stores well, and tastes better.
CAMERON’S WINERY on MAIN STREET in NORTHFIELD, MASSACHUSETTS

PAUL AND LESLIE CAMERON started making wine as a hobby. In 2012, they began producing their unusual wines for sale. These days, the Camerons produce their wines, which includes many fruit varieties along with the more traditional grape, at their shop on Main Street, in Northfield, Massachusetts. The Camerons produce more than 100 types of wine, from very dry to sweet, including apple, apricot, black currant and elderberry, as well as more unusual varieties, like caramel apple, lemon sherbet, strawberry rhubarb, and chocolate dipped raspberry dessert wine. New and different wines are ready every week. They also ship, and their wine makes a great and unusual gift.

ZORVINO VINEYARDS of SANDOWN, NEW HAMPSHIRE

Jim and Cheryl Zanello took a trip to Italy in 2001 that left them dreaming of a winery of their own. That dream culminated in a taste of European culture that took the form of ZORVINO VINEYARD, a picturesque winery in Sandown, New Hampshire on 80 beautiful acres in the middle of a New England hardwood forest. The Zanellos produce quality wines from grapes grown on their own property as well as interesting varietals from grapes grown in such premier winemaking regions as Tuscany, Chile and Northern California. The winery includes a beautiful post and beam manor house with a huge fireplace which can accommodate events of all types and sizes, as well as a wonderful terrace with flowing ponds and waterfalls where you can relax and have a glass of wine while overlooking the vineyards. The Zanellos’ emphasis is quality – of wine, of food, and of life.

THE HANCOCK INN of HANCOCK, NEW HAMPSHIRE

Marcia and Jarvis Coffin were new to inn keeping when they bought the Hancock Inn, but with the help of an experienced staff and their golden retriever, Potter, they have succeeded in providing their guests with historic ambiance and delicious food while incorporating such modern comforts as central air conditioning and private bathrooms. The Hancock Inn, located at 33 Main Street in Hancock, is the oldest inn in New Hampshire and one of the oldest bed and breakfasts in New England. It has been in continuous operation since 1789 – a year when George Washington was President and the Revolutionary War was still a recent memory – and it is filled with colonial-style furniture, many New England antiques, and paintings and curios “of the period”.

The name of the inn changed over the years, even as Hancock and the surrounding area changed. It became a center of social life after being purchased by state senator David “Squire” Patten in 1830; his close friend U.S. Senator Franklin Pierce was a frequent guest, and it was known far and wide for its food early on. The inn acquired the name Hancock House in 1875. In the early 20th century, wall murals painted by the famous itinerant artist, inventor and journalist, Rufus Porter, and stenciling by well-known Hancock stenciling artist Moses Eaton, Jr., both circa 1825, were discovered in two rooms of the inn.

Today, the Hancock Inn offers a number of rooms with different amenities, including king and queen size canopy beds, and some rooms with whirlpool tubs and gas and electric fireplaces. You can rock on the front porch and watch the world go by, and experience traditional New Hampshire tavern dining on the premises, with a seasonally changing menu that “celebrates the comforts of fine New England cuisine - roast beef, pan-roasted fish, steaks, seasonal vegetables and flavorful, rich braises such as their signature “Shaker Cranberry Pot Roast” or the popular prixe fixe “Innkeeper’s Supper” from 5:30 to 7:30 Sunday evenings, when you can sample such fare as spaghetti and meatballs, roast loin of pork, grilled chicken under-a-brick, beef bourguignon, New England boiled dinner, and “other favorites that offer a comforting close to the weekend”.

WINDOW MASTER on MAIN STREET in DUBLIN, NEW HAMPSHIRE

If you wish your wood windows were more energy efficient and/or lest drafty, or if they just need to be restored, renovated, or converted to double panes, WINDOW MASTER can help you. In the course of successfully preserving and improving old wood windows for twenty years, founder David Voorhis and his team have developed a comprehensive approach to all aspects of energy conservation, and they are committed to preserving the historic integrity and value of your home. Renovating old wood windows not only conserves energy and makes the window less drafty, it prevents the necessity of manufacturing a new window, possibly with materials inferior to the original. Window Master has experience with residences, commercial and public buildings, and historical properties throughout the area. They help owners preserve architectural integrity while restoring and draft-proofing old windows. So if you are thinking of restoring or renovating your wood windows, please give Window Master a call or check out their website at windowmasternh.com.

SPOTLIGHT on SARA MANN TUTORING

SARA MANN tutors all ages and skill levels in Math, Science, Reading, Language Arts and Study Skills on site at SJRS. Sara was a middle school teacher before becoming Director of Education, Center Director and owner of the Keene Sylvan Learning Center. She started her tutoring business so she could focus more on her young daughter.

Sara offers tutoring to SJRS families from 3 - 5:30 Monday through Friday and during some study hall hours at the school. She relates well to students, she’s patient and knowledgeable, she is an excellent communicator and she is good at accommodating your child’s needs and schedule. The single student rate is $35/hour and the group rate for 2 - 4 students who are working on the same topic/skill set is $25/student/ hour. For more information or to schedule tutoring, you can contact Sara directly via email at Sara.Manntutor@yahoo.com, or on her Facebook page Sara Mann - private tutor.

LITTLE ZOE’S TAKE AND BAKE PIZZA in the CENTER AT KEENE in KEENE, NEW HAMPSHIRE

Little Zoe’s, named for Melanie and Ed’s pizza-loving daughter, is family owned and operated, uses all natural ingredients, local whenever possible, and offers yummy buns, salads, and cookie dough (you bake the cookies fresh at home just like with the pizza) as well as a variety of tasty bottled drinks, like Blueberry soda and Coca Cola made with cane sugar instead of corn syrup.

Melanie and Ed are long-time supporters of SJRS, supporting the Auction and doing fundraisers with the school. They proof their dough, which comes in FIVE different styles, including gluten free, so that it is easier to digest than other doughs. They offer TWELVE different sauces, and SEVENTY different toppings, from which you can decide on your own combination or go with one of the THIRTY-PLUS combinations they have already formulated. For the hot-and-spicy lover in your family, try Red Dragon or the Rattler. Other amazing choices, including vegetarian, abound. The fresh, quality, local ingredients and the fact that you bake it at home so it’s always piping hot are what make their pizza so special.

Little Zoe’s is also available for catering - Little Zoe’s Mobile Kitchen can bake their pizzas “almost anywhere, any time you want them . . . whether it’s a party for 50 or 350 we can take care of you.” If you prefer to have the pizza cooked for you, get it from the LZMK truck at the Center at Keene Wednesday through Friday, if they’re not at a function or a festival. The truck is bright yellow and easy to spot. Don’t forget to check them out on Facebook for specials and coupons!

THE FARM CAFE at TOADSTOOL BOOKS in KEENE, NEW HAMPSHIRE

Amy and Skip Smith have been a team since high school, when they discovered not only each other, but their mutual passion for a healthful, sustainable, vegetarian life. They have transformed that passion, and their culinary talents, into their profession. Initially, they established their business and a loyal customer base via their food truck, “Farm Concessions”, at festivals and other events and more regularly at the corner of Emerald and Wilson Streets, just a couple of blocks from SJRS. In November 2016, they took it to the next level by establishing The Farm Café, a vegetarian and vegan café, in The Toadstool Bookshop on Emerald Street.

Amy and Skip are firm supporters of local and regional vendors – including The Bread Shed and Prime Roast – and strive to re-use and recycle as much as possible. Anything found on the Environmental Working Group’s “Dirty Dozen”, a list of foods that are, if conventionally grown, most often contaminated by pesticide residues, are only used at The Farm Café if organic produce is available. The food is delicious, and there’s something for everyone, from soups and sandwiches to cupcakes and handmade chocolates. The Smiths’ food has received raves over the years, being recognized as the country’s #1 Vegan/Vegetarian Food Truck by Mobile Cuisine and included in the 2017 “Best of New Hampshire” issue of New Hampshire Magazine. Skip and Amy can be reached on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, and via email at thefarmconcessions@gmail.com.

ERIC FINLEY, REAL ESTATE BROKER, at the MASIELLO GROUP of KEENE, NEW HAMPSHIRE

Eric Finley is a native of the Keene area, and real estate is a family tradition for him. His mother, Segrid Finley, was a successful real estate agent in Keene and the surrounding area for many years. Eric, who has been licensed since 1984, followed in his mom’s footsteps, and also specializes in properties in the greater Keene area. His background includes construction and surveying, so he has a sharp eye when it comes to finding the quality you want in a property. So if you are thinking of buying or selling a home, support an SJRS donor and call Eric!
