

*FOR SUE MOCK INTERVIEW PURPOSE ONLY**Job Title: Regulatory Research & Analysis Co-op Student

Make what you do matter.

Regulatory Research & Analysis Co-op Student
 Reference Code: ~~44901~~

Location: Canada (CA) - Calgary, ABJob Category: Administration; Student OpportunitiesEmployment Type: ~~Co-op Student Full-time~~Relocation Eligibility: This position is eligible for our domestic relocation programGeneral Information~~STUDENT CO-OP/~~INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITY: 4-month term, starting May 2018.

The Regulatory Research and Analysis group provides research and analysis services for TransCanada's businesses and wholly-owned subsidiaries in support of gas pipeline regulatory filings and business initiatives. The group also monitors regulatory developments in North America, and provides timely updates with perspective on emerging relevant issues. The successful candidate of this position will report to the Manager of Regulatory Research and Analysis.

Responsibilities

- Provide regulatory research analysis support with respect to TransCanada filings, interventions and policy development;
- Monitor and analyze regulatory issues related to the development of TransCanada gas pipeline project and existing assets;
- Provide economic analysis of regulatory decisions;
- Respond to research requests from within TransCanada Gas Transmission;
- Other tasks as required.

Qualifications and Education*Qualifications:

- Must be enrolled in a co-op/internship program at a recognized post-secondary institution over the entire duration of the work term;
- Knowledge of economic concepts and principles;
- Strong research skills;
- Strong interpersonal and communication skills to work efficiently in a collaborative team environment;
- Strong attention to detail and well-developed written and verbal skills;
- Ability to multitask effectively and practice good time management skills.

Education/Experience:

- Completion of second year in an Economics undergraduate degree program, preference will be given for specialty in Gas Business Regulatory Economics or Energy Economics;
- Proficient in MS Office suites;
- Familiarity with the regulated utility industry is considered an asset;
- Knowledge and understanding of the gas transmission business is considered an asset.

*Depending on the qualifications of the applicants, the successful candidate may be offered a position at a more appropriate level and/or ladder.

Applicants must have legal authorization to work in the country in which the position is based with no restrictions.

~~Applicants who require accommodation at any stage of the application process or if you would like additional information regarding TransCanada's accommodation policies please contact careers@transcanada.com.~~

All positions require background screening. Some include criminal and/or credit checks in order to comply with regulations.

~~Please apply to this posting by November 20, 2017. To apply, go to <https://career8.successfactors.com/sfcareer/jobreqcareerpvt?jobId=44901&company=TransCanada&username=&st=C0C2F7E0DC96165DF19770A92C91D761FBDC3D87>. Only applications submitted through the TransCanada Careers website will be acknowledged.~~

TransCanada is an equal opportunity employer.

Make what you do matter.

At TransCanada we dream big, think big and do big things. For over 65 years, we've had the vision and scale to deliver big things that matter to the world. From supplying reliable and efficient energy to millions of North Americans with our pipelines, gas storage and power generation facilities, we believe in making big things possible.

TransCanada is looking for people who are willing to think about the future...and think big. We're looking for people who are ready to take on the most significant challenges of their careers and define energy infrastructure in North America.

Thank you for choosing TransCanada in your career search.

*FOR SUE MOCK INTERVIEW PURPOSE ONLY***