

Mike Colalillo Medal of Honor Scholarship

Supporting higher education in St. Louis County

High school seniors and college students with a physical connection to St. Louis County, Minnesota, are encouraged to apply for the Mike Colalillo Medal of Honor Scholarship. The application deadline is Thursday, Nov. 12, 2020.

Mr. Colalillo was the last known surviving World War II Medal of Honor recipient in the State of Minnesota. He was born and raised in St. Louis County, and he dropped out of school when his mother died so he could help support the family. Following the war, Mr. Colalillo raised three children in Duluth, Minnesota. To learn about his military service, visit <http://www.vets-hall.org/stories/world-war-ii/mike-colalillo>.

Veterans Memorial Hall, a program of St. Louis County Historical Society, honors Mr. Colalillo by awarding annual scholarships to students who live in and/or go to school in St. Louis County, Minnesota.

In 2020, a scholarship of $1,500 will be given to one student.

In order to be eligible, applicants must meet one of the following requirements:

- A full-time student who is enrolled in a higher education institution in St. Louis County, OR
- A resident of St. Louis County who is a full-time student enrolled in a higher education institution in another county or state, OR
- A high school senior who lives in St. Louis County and plans to attend a higher education institution
