

Date	Aircraft Type & Serial	Unit	Crew	Location	Cause	Sources / References
8.6.44	Halifax Mk V LL416 NF-O  LL306 (FOF, A Noble Pair of Brothers)	138 Sqdn RAF	P/O Francis Harold Lyne RCAF - Pilot - killed Sgt Willie Beaumont Bishop RAFVR - Flight Eng - killed F/Sgt John Hamilton RCAF - Navigator - Killed Sgt A. McC Hinds RCAF - Gunner - evaded Sgt William Howard Moffat RCAF - Gunner - killed W/O2 Arthur Roy Smith RCAF - Air Bomber - killed F/Sgt Ralph William .W. Westergard RCAF - Wireless Op / Gunner - killed All killed are buried at La Ferte-St-Cyr Communal Cemetery, Loir-et-Cher, France  Sgt Hinds who survived the crash was hidden in a house near St-Vi_tre, 40 km S of Orleans until liberated by the Americans 17Sep44.	Nr Fert-St-Cyr (Loier-et Cher), France	Airborne from Tempsford on OPERATION HISTORIAN 10, setting course for France. Shot down by Flak before reaching the DZ. Crashed in the vicinity of la Ferte-St-Cyr (Loir-et-Cher), a small village NE of the Foret de Boulogne, some 26 km ENE of Blois.	Page 116 Flights of the Forgotten Page 315 Agents by Moonlight Page 267 Bomber Command Losses 1944 Page 99 A Noble Pair of Brothers Roll of Honour Website CWGC website Lost Bomber website Special Forces Roll of Honour website