

Managing Europe's Archaeological heritage

Archaeological sites and monuments in the care of the state

– sharing our experiences

EAC Symposium, Dublin, Ireland, 28 February - 1 March 2019

2nd CALL FOR PAPERS

The next EAC Annual Meeting will be held on 28 February/1 March 2019 in Dublin, Ireland. The topic of the Heritage Management Symposium will be 'Archaeological sites and monuments in the care of the state – sharing our experiences'.

The 20th EAC Symposium will be held over one and a half days (28 February and 1 March 2019) and will consist of a number of presentation sessions followed by discussions – including questions and comments from the floor. You and your colleagues are kindly invited to propose a presentation on any aspect(s) described in the concept note of the symposium. Each presentation will last max. 20 minutes and each presenter should propose relevant actions or recommendations as part of their presentation/paper.

The concept note of the symposium and other information about the Annual Meeting can be found here: <https://www.europae-archaeologiae-consilium.org/annual-meeting-2019>

VENUE - DUBLIN CASTLE

The 2019 EAC Annual Meeting will be held in Hibernia Conference Centre, Dublin Castle, in the heart of the city centre. It is one of Dublin's most historic properties, which from 1204 until 1922 was the seat of English, and later British rule in Ireland. Built on top of earlier Viking settlement, the castle was gutted by fire in the 17th century after which it was rebuilt as a Georgian palace. It is managed by the Irish Government's Office of Public Works.
