

The Olvera Street Merchants and El Pueblo Historical Monument present the

Día de los Muertos Festival

October 25 through November 2, 2017

Photo Credit: Vinicio Ordoñez Quan

Olvera Street is home to a colorful celebration that takes place over nine days. Merging ancient traditions with modern-day interpretations, we invite you to join us in honoring deceased loved ones. Let us remember their life on earth, and the beautiful spirits that live on after death.

Viva la Vida!

www.olveraevents.com

Día de los Muertos on Olvera Street

Novenario Procession

October 25 through November 2 at 7:00pm

Nightly procession—a colorful parade of “Living Muertos” honoring ancient traditions and modern day celebrations. Champurrado & sweet bread provided after procession.

Festival Days

October 28 & 29 from 10:00am-8:00pm

November 1 & 2 from 4:00-8:00pm

Entertainment and face painting throughout the day, followed by Novenario.

Community Altars - “Las Ofrendas”

October 28 through November 2

On display in the plaza

Children’s Workshops for Elementary School Groups

October 18-20, 25-27, & November 1-2

Reservations Required—contact Valerie Hanley at (213) 716-1373

Carrera de los Muertos

October 28 at 7:00 a.m.

A vibrant 5k run that honors Day of the Dead. Join family and friends to remember loved ones that have passed in this rich cultural tradition. Registration required: losmuertos5k.com

Our Day of the Dead Festival is sponsored in part by:

DEPARTMENT OF CULTURAL AFFAIRS
City of Los Angeles

For more information about this and other events, please visit:

www.olveraevents.com

@olverastreetofficial

General Event Info: (213) 625-7074
El Pueblo Monument: (213) 485-6855