

How do Woodland Social Enterprises generate income?

Which resources are needed?

Sources of income

Types of income

Grants

Contracts

Trading

Activities

Producing and selling wood products

Bird or bat boxes

Hedgehog homes

Bee hotels

Spoons and bowls

Benches

Wood fuel

Green gym

Greencare

Forest bathing

Health and wellbeing services

'Walkie Talkie' groups

Woodland skills training

Volunteers

Outdoor learning

Forest school

Site rental

Parties and weddings

Forest school

Children's parties

Music festival

Camping or glamping

Wellbeing days

Bushcraft days

Types of income

Grants

Contracts

Trading

Activities

Festivals and recreation

Woodland Fair

Provide catering at events

Camping and glamping

Birthday parties

Venue for external festivals

Corporate Social Responsibility days

Green gym

Forest School

Further education

Education services and courses

'Woodland-based courses

Education project delivery

Bushcraft

Arts and crafts

SEN Forest School

Woodland Management

Advice and consultancy

Stewardship

Arb work

Environmental protection

Contracts for woodland management

Sponsorship for tree planting

Coppicing

