Dear «Salutation»,

Thank you for your sponsorship of Pickin' for Preemies in support of the Cook Children's Neonatal Intensive Care Unit!

As the ancient proverb states, "It takes a village to raise a child". This could not be more true of our partnership with you, a vital member of our village, to help us provide the top level of care we give to premature and medically fragile infants.

In a village, everyone comes together for the betterment of children. As a supporter of Pickin' for Preemies, you join others in the community for the purpose of improving the lives of our future. You provide resources that allow the focus to be placed on the emergent needs of babies and the family as a whole, help siblings understand what is happening to their brother or sister and give the family the skills they need to cope with the new medical situation.

It feels good to know that our village is strong and we can count on you to help "raise" the children in this community.

On behalf of all of us at Cook Children's, thank you for your generosity.

Sincerely,

Dear «Salutation»,

Thank you for your gracious gift through Pickin' for Preemies in support of Cook Children's Neonatal Intensive Care Unit (NICU).

What do Stevie Wonder, Sir Isaac Newton and Mark Twain have in common? They were all once preemies. Imagine the great things that our NICU babies will accomplish in the future because of you generosity! There are future scientists, musicians and authors in our NICU right now receiving the care they need to go forth and change the world for the better and we have you to thank.

Your support of our level IV NICU means that we can offer state of the art treatments, surgeries and services, any of which are available at only a handful of NICUs nationwide. Your generosity brings leading edge treatments right here to Fort Worth and gives babies in our community the chance to become who they are meant to be.

Thank you again,

Jane Doe

Dear «Salutation»,

Cook Children's knows that promises are made to keep, which is why our guiding focus is a Promise, rather than a traditional mission statement. Our Promise is to improve the health of every child in our region through the prevention and treatment of illness, disease and injury. Everyone at Cook Children's works each day to heal both the physical and mental challenges of our patients.

Through your generous gift to support our behavioral health services, you play an important role in the lives of these young patients and their families. Unlike physical illness which can include recognizable signs of sickness, those who suffer from mental health issues often bear no outward symptoms. Too often these issues go unrecognized and untreated until a crisis occurs. This is where the expert pediatric psychiatrists, psychologists and clinicians at Cook Children's have the ability to help guide the child and family toward a positive and productive outcome.

Thanks to you, the Behavioral Health Center on the sixth floor of the new South Tower will provide the environment needed to help these patients comprehend their challenges, set and achieve goals and reconnect with family, friends and community with the tools and skills to be successful in life.

We greatly value your partnership as we strive daily to keep our Promise.

Dear

I write with my sincerest thanks for your $0.00 donation to First Book. Your gift sends a message to the children we serve that people care about their future. With your help, First Book can provide the essential resource every child needs to succeed in school, and in life—brand new, high-quality books.

I wish you could be there when the books are handed to the kids. They jump up and down with excitement. Their eyes light up. They can't wait to start reading. New books spark their imaginations, feed their growing and developing minds, and bring joy and comfort. So many of the children we serve have no books to call their own. Your gift is an investment in their lives.

To learn even more about First Book and how you can continue to inspire children, visit www.firstbook.org to sign up for e-news or volunteer with First Book.

I am grateful that you keep these children close to your heart.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Donor,

How inspiring to have such loyal supporters as an integral part of our Thompson family! Your gift is already at work to help provide the critical care that our children and families desperately need in order to have a successful and happy life.

Children come to Thompson weighed down by the baggage of trauma and abuse. It is only because of compassionate people like you that we are able to give the children and families we serve a glimpse of hope. Just one glimmer is enough to transform their lives!

We thank you from the bottom of our hearts for this support. We could not do what we do without YOUR help...and without YOU believing in our mission! We are eternally grateful for you.

Most Sincerely,

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Donor,

What if you did not know what it felt like to be safe? What if every day was a struggle to make it through the day because you did not know if someone would feed you or protect you? Unfortunately, the children and families that we serve at Thompson have to face these fears all too often.

We are humbled by the support of loyal people like you, who believe that children should never have to feel this way. Your caring gift is already at work to help children in our care feel safe, protected, and loved.

As a supporter of Thompson, you have joined the village that is required to help children succeed in life! Together, we strive to create a better world for children in which children may thrive. We could not provide that without the generosity of our supporters. You inspire us!

Thanks to you, more children will come to know what safety, protection, and love should feel like.

With Deepest Thanks,

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Donor,

Today, you have helped rebuild the life of a child. The vast majority of the children and families we serve at Thompson are fraught with pain and sadness. With your help, we are able to begin the process of healing and provide an opportunity for success in life.

Last week, a boy in our residential program told his mentor that he was, "beginning to feel a change." He talked about the love that he felt since coming to Thompson and how he felt it was beginning to change his life.

Thanks to your unwavering support, we are able to continue transforming lives across the Carolinas. Thompson has already put your dollars to work to honor our commitment to our mission of healing.

On behalf of the children and families that we serve, we thank you from the very bottom of our hearts.

Kindest Regards,

Mary Jo Powers

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Donor,

Every child deserves love, support, and the promise of a bright future. Sometimes the children that come to Thompson have no concept of any of these things. Thanks to your heartfelt generosity, another child is able to see a bright future.

Your kind gift will help Thompson continue to provide the services that these children need to understand what it is like to have someone take care of them. With your help, Thompson can begin repairing the lives of children that have been crumbling for years.

It is an honor to see your name among the inspiring supporters of our vision to lead children and families into independent and rewarding lives! We couldn't do it without you.

Most gratefully,

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Donor,

Your support and commitment to our mission to serve is an inspiration!

Every day at Thompson, the children and families in our care become stronger and more capable of achieving success because of your generosity. You are truly making a difference in their lives.

Last week, 8-year-old Savannah, who lives on our Saint Peter's Lane campus, told me that Thompson is the "best family she ever had." To some of these children, family is not found elsewhere. But thanks to your kindness, we are able to help them understand what family means by providing that T.L.C. across our programs!

Your part in the Thompson Family is an important one, and we are so grateful for your willingness to stand beside us as we serve a fragile population of children and families in great need.

With Heartfelt Thanks,

Dear «Salutation» and «SpsSalu»:

On behalf of the University of Idaho community, thank you for your recent [gift/pledge] to the «Designation». Your support helps strengthen the University of Idaho's commitment to excellence, enabling our community to maximize its potential by offering more opportunities to more people.

Just this year, private support from donors like you has allowed us to accomplish so much including:

- Once-in-a-lifetime learning experiences were provided to students through financial assistance for alternative service breaks and study abroad opportunities
- Facilities and learning spaces were enhanced, including the University of Idaho Arboreta and our statewide network of research, extension and instructional centers
- Students, alumni and community members were able to celebrate the weeklong tradition of homecoming together, highlighted by the annual fireworks display and parade
- Additional academic and support services were made available to our students through contributions to the Career Center, LGBTQA office and programs like the Raven Scholars and Operation Education programs

Because of you, we are able to provide our students these opportunities, as well as so many more. Thank you for giving to the University of Idaho.

Thank you for helping a new generation of leaders prepare for future successes by giving to the University of Idaho. Your [gift/pledge] supporting the «Designation» plays a vital role in inspiring our students to succeed and learn to lead.

Transformational learning experiences happen throughout a student’s University of Idaho experience, both in and out of the classroom. Each year, private donations like yours support and advance our out-of-classroom learning environments and engagement opportunities, including the:

Dear «Salutation» and «SpsSalu»:

Every year, I receive moving statements from University of Idaho students about the impact of receiving a scholarship. Some of those this past year included:

"Receiving this scholarship not only gave me a reason to keep my academic performance in college at a high standard, it also gave me the encouragement to do so." - Sophomore, Business Economics

"Scholarships are how I am paying for my education. I would not be able to attend the University of Idaho without their help." - Sophomore, Mechanical Engineering

The statements that I share with you today are only a few of the sentiments echoed by the more than 4,000 scholarship recipients at the University of Idaho each year. Thank you for helping inspire this next generation of future leaders by giving to the «Designation» at the University of Idaho.

Making a [gift/pledge] supporting student scholarships is a direct and meaningful way to impact the future. The students you are supporting today are tomorrow's leaders and innovators. By opening up the world of higher education to them, you are inspiring the future for us all.

I leave you with one last student thought –

"If I could say anything to the donor of my scholarship, I would want them to understand the wonderful impact their support has made on both my academic and personal life. Thanks to the kindness and generosity of a stranger, I am currently undergoing one of the most enriching experiences of my life. I would want them to know how grateful I am, as without the scholarships provided by them, my college experience would have been vastly different." - Junior, Microbiology

Thank you for your recent support of the University of Idaho. Your [gift/pledge] to the «Designation», the makes an important difference in the lives of our students, the work of our faculty, and the prosperity of communities across Idaho and beyond.

Your generous support affirms and makes possible what we know to be true – that the University of Idaho provides access to a great education and life-changing experiences. I hear examples of this impact almost every day – from an alternative service break trip that finds UI students installing solar panels on homes in Nicaragua, to students being able to participate in transformative cultural experiences such as the Lionel Hampton Jazz Festival, to the success of our graduates in fields from engineering to the humanities. Student by student, graduate by graduate, and community by community, supporting access to education and opportunity means making an investment in a better world.

Generous [donors/partners] like you are the critical ingredient for continued success. With your support today, we are able to provide more opportunities and meet the challenges of tomorrow by growing our student population, increasing our capacity for groundbreaking research and serving our communities.

In short, your [gift/pledge] helps shape our shared future. I believe that impact is well-described in the words of one of our students:

“Your donation is more than just money - it is that incredible African literature course, that service trip to Romania, that on-campus job that taught me how to put my passion to action. It is the entirety of my university experience that can't be expressed adequately in words. Saying 'thank you' doesn't quite suffice, so instead, I will make a promise to take my education and use it to contribute meaningfully to the world around me.”

Thank you for your contribution and for believing in our vision for a better future.

Dear Donor:

Thank you for your recent commitment to the FUND NAME at Allegheny College. Our students, faculty, and staff appreciate your generosity and your outstanding loyalty in supporting our College.

Comment [n1]: If consistent donor

Gifts from donors like you support Allegheny's mission, helping to prepare young adults for successful, meaningful lives. The College seeks to teach students how to think critically and creatively, write clearly, speak persuasively, and meet the challenges of a diverse, interconnected world. An Allegheny education is much more than just a degree, and the overall experience stretches far beyond a typical liberal arts education.

Here are just a few of the ways that you and your fellow donors have made a difference for Allegheny students over the past year:

- 106 students had the opportunity to conduct research with their faculty mentors and dozens of students presented their research findings at national conferences
- 117 students studied abroad in France, Italy, Turkey and many other destinations
- 118 students received funding to support the completion of an internship or attendance at a professional workshop or conference related to their studies

Again, thank you for transforming the lives of these future leaders, and thank you for participating in Our Allegheny: Our Third Century Quest comprehensive campaign. If you would like to check the progress of the campaign, please visit www.allegheny.edu/campaign.

Sincerely,

Lisa Young
Director for Donor Relations

Dear «AD_PREC_SALUTATION»:

Few experiences are quite as exhilarating as a vibrant university campus in the first few weeks of a new semester. In that wonderful moment when new students who are trying to find their way are joined by thousands of returning students eager to renew relationships and studies, one is moved by their energy and amazing potential for the future.

I am often struck by the fact that each of these students comes to University Name in a simple trust that we have what they need to be prepared for the future that awaits. They trust that we have academic programs that will challenge them and faculty who will know them personally and be mentors as well as teachers. They trust that by example and teaching, we will lead them to an active, meaningful faith that will guide their steps for a lifetime and beyond.

That's why I am so grateful for your gift to the «ACK_GIFT_DESG_OFF_NAME». Your generosity equips us to be worthy of that trust and to fulfill our mission in each student. They will progress, graduate and live faithful lives of excellence in leadership and service because you invested in them through University Name. Thank you for this gift, and for all you do for University Name!

Cordially,

Dear «AD_PREC_SALUTATION»:

Spring is often referred to as the “season of hope.” Perhaps more than any other time of year, spring offers the anticipation of new beginnings with longer periods of daylight, the brilliant colors of earth’s resurrection and, especially this year, the promise of consistently warm temperatures.

Spring is the season of hope at University Name for hundreds of reasons — all of which are embodied in students who complete another year of education or walk across the stage to accept the degree for which they have worked so diligently. They are people of excellence, character, faith and service who hold special promise for the future. You are one of the reasons they give us so much hope: they are poised for success in their next stage of life because you have invested in them through University Name.

The impact of your generosity is why I am so grateful for your recent gift to the «ACK_GIFT_DESG_OFF_NAME». I know you have many opportunities to express your philanthropy. Thank you for choosing to invest in our students at University Name!

Dear «AD_PREC_SALUTATION»:

“You do more good than you can possibly know.”

A mentor of mine frequently encouraged others with this thought. I remember this phrase often for many reasons, but especially in this moment as I think of you and the generosity you invest in students through University Name.

Certainly, you recently gave to the «ACK_GIFT_DESG_OFF_NAME» in the confidence that good will result. The fact is, however, that only God can know the full measure of the good you are doing by creating an experience for students that will prepare them for lifetimes of leadership, faith, service and influence. I hope you take great joy in the thought that through this gift you will do more good than you can possibly know.

Thank you! I am grateful for you, for your support of our students and for all the good you do at University Name.

Sincerely,

Dear «AD_PREC_SALUTATION»:

I am writing to thank you for your recent gift of $«ACK_GIFT_DESG_AMT» to the «ACK_GIFT_DESG_OFF_NAME», but more broadly, for all you do to create the experience that is University Name.

As you know, transforming students into graduates who integrate competency and excellence with a life-guiding, Christian faith is no simple task. I appreciate your support of this institution and am grateful for the wonderful blessing of your generosity, prayers and dedication to Christian education!

Essential Steward ($10,000 or more to Brooks Fund)

Head of School writes handwritten note

Your generous support of Brooks School is remarkable. Thank you for your gift to the Brooks Fund and for being an Essential Steward – a member of the community whose support is critical to the successes we enjoy on campus each year.

In fiscal year 2015, 58 percent of the $2.1 million Brooks Fund dollars raised came from those Essential Stewards who gave $10,000 or more. Underwriting 10 percent of the school's annual operating budget, the Brooks Fund impacts virtually every aspect of campus life. It helps maintain our spectacular campus. It helps us stock up on school supplies, art materials and sports equipment. It also helps deliver valuable faculty professional development and unique student opportunities such as Winter Term.

Thank you for investing in the lives of our students, and thank you for taking an interest in the future of Brooks School. We value your voice and your philanthropic leadership and hope that you will make a note of October 16 on your calendar for Brooks' second Summit. We welcome the opportunity to report on the progress we have made over the past year, and hear your thoughts on the future of Brooks. Keep an eye out for a formal invitation to join us on campus in the coming weeks.

In the meantime, please know that your generous support of Brooks School is sincerely appreciated.

Sincerely,
Director of Development

Athletics

I appreciate you for sending in a gift for our [athletic or SPORT] program. Studies show high school sports alone do not build character, that context and environment matter. Every day, we witness our students representing Brooks proudly, learning healthy fitness and time management habits, experiencing teamwork, building leadership skills, and navigating social relationships. These skills go far beyond the sports field and even beyond Brooks. Our athletes reap the benefit of their athletic endeavors, which is part of the meaningful education we aim to deliver, for the rest of their lives.

Thank you for supporting Brooks School and helping us create the best possible environment for our athletes.

Sincerely,
Head of School

Campaign Fund for the Arts Center

This is an exciting time for Brooks School, and you are part of the reason why. While we have made many programmatic and physical plant improvements over the last six years, the medium- and long-term durability of the school is of primary focus now. Your interest in the future of Brooks coupled with your philanthropic care of our school is remarkable. Thank you for your gift to the Campaign Fund for the Arts Center.

Work to bolster the arts in the lives of our students is well underway. A new class schedule beginning this year provides additional meeting time for the arts. Because art classes will now meet four times each week, they will carry the same weight as traditional academic courses. Similarly, performance ensembles will now meet three times a week in the new schedule. This increase in time devoted to the arts not only allows the arts to be a more integral part of the Brooks academic landscape but also symbolizes the increasing institutional importance of the arts in the school community.

The need for updated arts spaces to support this work and our mission is clear, and your generosity brings us one step closer to realizing that goal. I look forward to sharing more in the months to come. In the meantime, please know that your support means a great deal.

Sincerely,
Head of School

Faculty/Staff

Thank you for your support of the Brooks Fund. Your investment in our school goes far beyond this gift. Your dedication and hard work allow us to take on challenges and celebrate successes. You help create the sense of community we witness every day.

As we embark on an exciting time in Brooks School's history, your whole-hearted support is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,
Head of School

Foundation

Because of the Robert Lehman Foundation, Brooks School is better. Your support of the arts at makes a difference. It allows us to stretch our program to meet the needs of our students and stay technologically current in the arts. The Foundation's recent grant to fund a Digital Media Lab within the Robert Lehman Arts Center will broaden the use and implementation of digital technologies for all of our students.

Thank you for making this possible, and thank you for helping us deliver on our mission as we seeks to provide the most meaningful educational experience our students will have in their lives. We are grateful for your investment.

Sincerely,
Head of School

Thank you for your support of Brooks School. Your recent grant for financial aid affirms the great work being done at Brooks and the efforts made to fulfill our mission each day.
