Introduction to Shinrin Yoku-Saturday, September 7, 2019 @ 11:00 a.m. Presented by Alexandra Lowry, Certified Forest and Parks Association Ramble Guide. Come learn about the amazing healing power of shinrin-yoku, also known as "forest bathing." Scientific research has now caught up with the ancient knowledge that time spent in forests have a direct, measurable and profound effect on the human spirit and physical well-being. The program is suitable for teens & adults. Limit 40. Call 860-859-1130 to register.

2019 Connecticut Authors Trail- Wednesday, September 11, 2019 @ 6:00 p.m. Authors Ehris Urban and Velya Jance-Urban will discuss their book, How to Survive a Brazilian Betrayal: a Mother-Daughter Memoir. In the book, a kooky, gregarious mother & a perceptive, poised daughter introduce readers to their offbeat Connecticut family. They take the reader along on a heart-wrenching, hilariously honest journey when they move to rural Brazil to run a dairy farm and open an English school. When they follow their hearts to Ponte Nova, an explosion of betrayal leaves them dazed and grieving. Broke and broken, they are forced to return to the United States and navigate their rebirth in a foreclosed 1770 New England farmhouse. Books will be available for sale and signing after the discussion. Attendees will receive a raffle ticket for a chance to win a gift basket at the end of the program. You must be present to win. Limit 40. Call 860-859-1130 to register.

Artemis Rising -Saturday, September 28, 2019 @ 11:00 a.m. A group poetry reading by the Connecticut based poetry circle, Artemis Rising. Artemis Rising is a group of women who have been meeting for over 20 years to support one another in their work as poets by giving both encouragement and critique. They will read from their original work and host an open mic for any poets in the audience who wish to share their work. Refreshments will be served. Books will also be available for sale. Call 860-859-1130 to register. Limit 40.

The Not-So-Good-Life of the Colonial Goodwife- Wednesday, October 9, 2019 @ 6:00 p.m. Featuring dynamic mother/daughter duo, Velya Jancz-Urban and Ehris Urban of the Grounded Goodwife, this program will cover what the history books skip over! Laugh, grimace and honor our foremothers' journeys while learning about the issues faced by New England's colonial women. Limit 40. Call 860-859-1130 to register.

Before Salem: Witch Hunting in the Connecticut River Valley, 1647-1663. Wednesday, October 30, 2019 @ 6:00 p.m. Presented by the author, Richard Ross, III, this book offers a fresh assessment of the first outbreak of witch accusations, trials and executions in the Connecticut River Valley. Books will be available for sale and signing. Limit 40 adults. Call 860-859-1130 to register.

Shoreline Ringers, Inc. - Saturday, November 2, 2019 @ 11:00 a.m. Come and learn about the art of handbell ringing with the Shoreline Ringers. Shoreline Ringers, Inc. is a community handbell choir formed in September 2006. This presentation will review the history of bells, a variety of techniques and a few performance pieces. Limit 40. Call 860-859-1130 to register.

Hungrytown Concert. Wednesday, November 6, 2019 @ 6:00 p.m. This is a return performance by the husband/wife duo, Hungrytown. Rebecca Hall and Ken Anderson play a wonderful blend of acoustic based folk music with wonderful harmonies. Their cds will be available for sale and signing. Limit 40. Call 860-859-1130 to register.

The Crate: A Story of War, a murder and Justice. Wednesday, November 20, 2019 @ 6:00 p.m. Presented by the author, Deborah Levison. The Crate is a true story of a gruesome crime that involved her family of Holocaust survivors. In 2010, her family discovered a wooden crate, nailed tightly shut and hidden underneath their cherished lakeside cottage. They were not prepared for the horrific contents of the crate! The themes are relevant and timely: of refugees and the need for sanctuary; domestic violence and racial intolerance; and the seemingly limitless human capacity for evil. Books will be available for sale and signing. Limit 40 adults. Call 860-859-1130 to register.
