The Federmann Center for the Study of Rationality (RATIO) Hebrew University of Jerusalem
and
The Decision Making and Economic Psychology Center (DMEP)
Ben-Gurion University of the Negev

are happy to invite you to the joint workshop

Prosocial and antisocial decision-making across the human lifespan

with special international guests

Jean Decety, Professor of Psychology and Psychiatry at the University of Chicago
and
Axel Ockenfels, Professor of Economics at the University of Cologne

We are grateful to the following sponsors:

I-CORE - the Israeli Centers for Research Excellence
The Federmann Center for the Study of Rationality (RATIO)
Hebrew University of Jerusalem
Guilford Glazer Faculty of Business & Management
Ben-Gurion University of the Negev
The Decision Making and Economic Psychology Center (DMEP)
Ben-Gurion University of the Negev

Please register here

Prosocial and antisocial decision-making across the human lifespan
Workshop of DMEP & RATIO
29/06/2017
Elath Hall, 2nd floor, Feldman Building, Edmond J. Safra Campus, Givat Ram, Jerusalem
PROGRAM:

9:30  Coffee and registration
10:00  Ilana Ritov (HU)  Welcome
10:10  Jean Decety, (Keynote, University of Chicago)  Empathy and social decision making 11:00  Ariel Knafo (HU)  Children's values and their prosocial and competitive choices: Genetic and environmental links
11:30  Coffee Break
12:00  Ilana Ritov (HU)  Reciprocating Trust or Generosity
12:30  Yoella Bereby-Meyer (BGU)  Deliberate Honesty
13:00  Lunch Break
14:10  Axel Ockenfels (Keynote, University of Cologne)  Norm Enforcement on EBay
15:00  Ayala Arad (TAU)  Sophistication and Multi Dimensional Reasoning in Strategic Situations
15:30  Coffee Break
16:00  Blitz session (15 minute talks)
16:00  Tom Gordon (BGU)  When equity trumps efficiency: Discarding a resource to avoid inequity
16:15  Hagit Sabato (BGU)  The Association between Religiousness and Children’s Altruism: The Role of the Recipient's Neediness
16:30  Itay Sisso (HU)  For whom less is more - Individual Differences in Choice Overload Tendencies
16:45  Tehila Kogut  Effect of media presentations on organ donation decisions: The role of identifiability and the number of recipients
17:00  Uriel Haran (BGU)  Identifiability and gaining an unfair advantage in competition
17:15  Simone Moran (BGU)  Closing

Dinner self-sponsored at Mahane-Yehuda Market