

WARRANTY INSPECTIONS

Is your home in the 11th month of your 1-year Builder Warranty? If so, you should consider a Warranty inspection to verify that proper building techniques and materials were used and that the various components of the home were properly installed. A 400 point professional, comprehensive inspection report will assist in bringing any warranty issues to the contractor responsible for upholding the warranty.