

NORTHERN MICHIGAN INFANT MENTAL HEALTH
CONSORTIUM PRESENTS:

Creating Strength-Based Environments to Support Children's Resilience and Healing

KRISTIN TENNEY-BLACKWELL, M.A. LLP, IMH-E

FOSTER & ADOPTIVE PARENTS, BIRTH PARENTS, CAREGIVERS, & PROFESSIONALS ALL WELCOME!

FREE TRAINING!
LIGHT REFRESHMENTS PROVIDED.

The environments in which young children spend time have a tremendous impact on their overall development and well-being. This session will focus on environmental considerations, including relationships, that match children's way of knowing and help support resilience and healing. It will include many practical ways to inspire safety, connection, and learning that will engage children in meaningful experiences.
