Sulphur Bay, Vanuatu, Project

To Whom It May Concern

For many years the Presbyterian Church of Australia has been in partnership with the Presbyterian Church of Vanuatu. We have assisted the church in training its Pastors to assist the church in capacity building.

In 2019 we will be sending the Cooke family from Orange, NSW, to serve at Sulphur Bay on the island of Tanna in Vanuatu. There, they will be working with Pastor Maliwan Tarueii in helping the church at Sulphur Bay reach out to the local residents and also develop some of the local education facilities.

We are now planning to build a very simple house at Sulphur Bay in which the Cookes will live for the time that they live at Sulphur Bay. The house will be constructed by a team from the Orange Presbyterian Church and the Toongabbie Presbyterian Church. The building materials will be ordered from the capital city, Port Vila, and delivered by ship to Tanna. Tanna is a somewhat remote island.

IHG Toongabbie Presbyterian Church will be holding a fundraising event at 238 Targo Road, Toongabbie, NSW on 27th October 2018, commencing at 17:30. Details regarding the event can be found on ihg.org.au. Your attendance is most welcome.

Any assistance that you can give for this project would be most gratefully received.

Yours sincerely,

Rev Kevin Murray
