

(State) _____ Voter ID Act

Adapted from 2011 Wisconsin Act 23

The people of the state of _____, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. In order to vote in the state of _____ an individual must provide proper identification at the polls.

“Proof of identification” means identification that contains the name of the individual to whom the document was issued, which name conforms to the individual’s voter registration form, and that contains a photograph of the individual.

“Identification” means any of the following documents issued to an individual:

(a) One of the following documents that is unexpired:

1. A valid operator’s license.
2. An identification card issued by the state.
3. An identification card issued by a U.S. uniformed service.
4. A U.S. passport.

(b) A certificate of U.S. Naturalization that was issued not earlier than two years before the date of an election at which it is presented.

(c) An unexpired driving receipt.

(d) An unexpired identification card receipt.

(e) An identification card issued by a federally recognized Indian tribe in this state.

If any or all ID provisions of this act are stricken by any court having venue and jurisdiction, or if any person claims to be a legally registered voter and refuses to provide any of the forms of accepted ID, then any voter choosing not to display a proper form of voter ID must pose for a photograph and full set of fingerprints before the voter's sealed paper provisional ballot may be accepted. If such voter refuses to volunteer either provide acceptable voter ID or pose for a photographic and fingerprint record, then their ballot or provisional ballot may not be accepted.

Poll workers and voters who fail to follow voter verification provisions of this act must be charged with voter fraud.

If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, then the invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act that can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to that end, the provisions of this act shall be severable.

All Acts and parts of Acts inconsistent with this Act are hereby repealed.

Effective date of acts. “Every act and every portion of an act enacted by the legislature over the governor’s partial veto which does not expressly prescribe the time when it takes effect shall take effect on the day after its date of publication as designated” by the secretary of state [the date of publication may not be more than 10 working days after the date of enactment].
