hairbyelm Shoutout to @monatofficial for sending me over some products to try out! Got some root lifter, leave in conditioner, and finishing spray! Love playing around with new stuff and seeing what's out there. So far i've enjoyed the lightweight feel of all of these since I have fine hair that falls pretty flat ☑☑. Have any of you guys tried #Monat? What are some of your favorite styling product lines out there? I'd love to hear my fellow stylists' obsessions ;) #hairbyELM brittanykfit Yep I've tried the men's line. I think it helped a tad to grow out little short hairs around my forehead. I liked it I think it's decent stuff. It's just expensive as F haha The rejuvenique oil is great too. Very nice.

brittanykfit Sorry I know I'm not a stylist but I had to comment. Lol ☑☑☑☑
